INVEST GOMEZ AS DICTATOR

Venezuelan Council Takes Steps to Thwart New Revolution.

HOPES TO CRUSH CASTRO QUICKLY

Former President Leading Large Force of His Followers.

Caracas, Venezuela, Aug. 1.—In consequence of the outbreak of the revolution in Venezuela and the invasion of the country by forces under the leadership of former President Cipriano Castro, the federal council today constitutionally authorized President Juan Vicente Gomez to assume dictatorial power until the movement is crushed.

President Gomez on Wednesday night sent the following telegram to the governors of all the Venezuelan states:

"General Cipriano Castro, impelled by ambition and the craze for power, has provoked a revolution in this republic by ordering his partisans to arm themselves against the constitutional government.

"Already rebel forces in several localities have disturbed the public order.

"It is necessary for you to be alert and to act rapidly and energetically in assisting the government to crush the rebels.

"The peace of the country, which conscientious Venezuelans are obliged to nourish, cannot be left at the mercy of adventurers who possess no idea of decorum.

"I trust you will fulfill your duty."

All Promise Support.

The governors in their replies promised unqualified support of the government. Some of them requested the dispatch of additional arms and ammunition.

It was rumored yesterday that Cipriano Castro was on board a steamer off Coro, but the government received no definite news of his landing on Venezuelan territory.

CROSS-QUIZ OF MULHALL ENDED

Former Lobbyist is Turned Over to the House Committee.

LAWYERS WORRY HIM

Washington, Aug. 1.—Cross examination of Martin M. Mulhall, confessed lobbyist for the National Association of Manufacturers, ended today before the senate committee. Mulhall was excused until Monday and turned over to the house lobby committee. The senate committee will turn next week to the files of the National Association of Manufacturers and an examination of its officials.

The senate lobby committee started out again today with another disagreement about the cross examination of Mulhall. After an executive session, the committee decided that the attorneys for the National Association of Manufacturers should have an additional two hours to examine the witness. The committee, however, put the questions. The lawyers began to direct the inquiry to the National Council for Industrial Defense. Mulhall previously testified that a collector for that organization had told him it raised between $500,000 and $700,000 for lobby work. He stuck to his story that the organization was only a paper one in which a few of the National Association of Manufacturers became members.

The lawyers worried Mulhall by asking him about a blacklist of congressmen put in the record two weeks ago. He could not explain the names of several republicans alleged to have been put on the list by the republican whip of the house.

DOCKMEN STRIKE AFTER COLLISION

Indignant Over Switching Accident Held Due to Carelessness.

3 KILLED, MANY HURT

Duluth, Minn., Aug. 1.—Three laborers are known to have been killed, two were fatally injured, four were badly hurt and a score more are unaccounted for as the result of a collision of ore trains at the Allouez ore docks last night. Indignant over the accident 250 dock hands struck.

The accident is blamed to careless switching. A moving ore train ran into a standing train, throwing the workmen into ore pockets and covering them with ore. All the ambulances in the city and a dozen doctors were summoned.

The dock managers ordered work resumed, but the foreigners refused. Special police then took charge of the docks. A number of boats loading will be delayed unless an agreement with the striking laborers is reached.

POSTMASTER HAS MUMPS; PATRONS WANT HIM OUSTED.

Washington, Aug. 1.—A resident of Almond, N. Y., has written to Senator O'Gorman asking for the immediate removal of George P. Helmer, republican postmaster there. The request for Postmaster Helmer's removal came several days ago and Senator O'Gorman asked for a statement of the reasons for the office holder's peremptory dismissal. He received a reply today to the effect that Helmer had the mumps and was assorting and delivering mail with his head tied up. The writer said the residents of the town feared the contagion might spread.

The senator is in a quandary. He is said to feel that a man with the mumps is in misery enough without having his trouble added to through the loss of his job.

WANTS PROBE OF HARD COAL TRUST

Murray Declares It Most Complete Monopoly in Existence.

ROADS HOLD CONTROL

Washington, Aug. 1.—Investigation of the hard coal trust was proposed in a resolution today by Representative Murray, of Massachusetts. It calls on the department of commerce, the department of labor and the interstate commerce commission for information as to the ownership of anthracite lands by railroads and to prices to cover production.

In a statement accompanying the resolution, Representative Murray declared facts in possession of the departments would prove one of the most complete monopolies in existence.

"I have every reason to believe," he said, "that there now is in the executive departments enough data to show that more than 90 per cent. of the available anthracite and between 85 and 90 per cent. of the anthracite shipped yearly is in the control of the seven railroad systems, which form the only means of transporting the coal to market. These roads are so bound together by common interests, by interlocking directorates and by agreements of various kinds that they act as a unit in controlling the price of anthracite coal."

The department of justice has been conducting an independent investigation for some time.

BRYAN GIVES FLAT DENIAL

Europe Not Pressing Uncle Sam for Aggressive Action in Mexico.

PLEASED AT NEW PLANS FOR PEACE

Government Does Not Intend to Give Recognition to Huerta Rule.

Washington, Aug. 1.—After a conference with President Wilson today Secretary Bryan declared that the United States was in no way being pressed for action in Mexico and issued the following statement:

"The statement which appeared in some of the morning papers to the effect that European governments are bringing pressure to bear on the United States to compel aggressive action in Mexico is entirely without foundation."

Administration officials were pleased to observe the reports from Mexico City that a reform element in the Mexican chamber of deputies was planning to submit peace proposals to bow factions in the revolution. So far as is known the policy of the American government will be to await the outcome of the negotiations of this character.

The Chief Difficulty.

The chief difficulty in negotiating peace, it is admitted by Mexicans of all factions, is the selection of a non-partisan provisional president. The suggestion was made today by some prominent Mexicans here that on account of the scarcity of men of ability who had not taken part in the Mexican disputes and changing politics, it might be expedient to select one of the veteran diplomats now representing Mexico abroad. A man of such character it was pointed out had no political affiliations and would give the situation the benefit of their experience in fields of diplomacy. Senor Corrvarubias, at present minister to Russia, and Senor Gilbert Crospoy Martinez were being mentioned.

Will Not Recognize Huerta.

The house foreign affairs committee today decided to ask Ambassador Henry Lane Wilson to appear and outline his views on Mexico. The ambassador may meet the committee tomorrow. Chairman Flood, setting forth the views of the administration as he has secured them from President Wilson and Secre-

M'ADOO PREPARES TO SEND OUT CASH

Government Will Give Real Aid in Annual Moving of Crops.

IS AN INNOVATION

Washington, Aug. 1.—Secretary McAdoo today prepared to distribute the promised twenty-five to fifty millions of dollars of government funds to the agricultural regions of the south and west. The secretary is collecting information as to the relative needs of each section where harvesting is now under way or soon to begin and expects to have the money in the banks in ample time for the movement of crops.

Treasury officials today were confident that the secretary's plan would be a powerful factor in avoiding or relieving the prospective tightness of money characteristic of the crop moving season. Much interest was manifested in the secretary's declaration of willingness to receive prime commercial paper as security for the deposits.

This innovation marks the government's first participation in the commercial market.

FIRST CASE FOR THE RAT-CATCHER

Initial Complaint Under New Law Reaches the Health Office.

MAY MEAN A CRUSADE

Under the provisions of the "rat law" passed by the last Indiana legislature the city health department is made official rat-catcher for Fort Wayne and the first complaint to be filed under that act reached the health office today. Complaint was made that a grocery on East Washington street was so infested with rats as to be a detriment to the neighborhood.

Dr. Eric Crull, the health commissioner, will send an officer to inspect the premises and if conditions are found that bring the case within the law the owner of the property will be ordered to abate the nuisance. If he fails the health department will do it for him

JUDGE STEPHEN A POWERS DEAD

Widely Known Jurist and Legislator Passes Away at Angola.

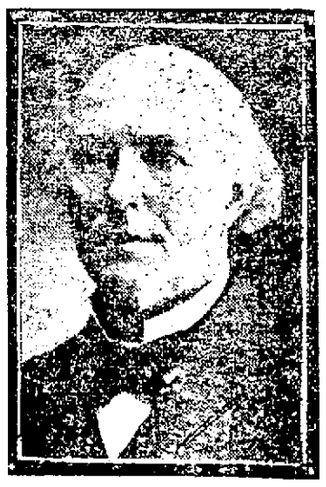
(Special to The Sentinel.)

Angola, Ind., Aug. 1.—Hon. Stephen A. Powers, jurist, legislator and one of the most widely known citizens of Northeastern Indiana, died here this morning after an illness which had confined him to his home since last February. Death was due to diabetes and complications.



JUDGE STEPHEN A. POWERS.

Judge Powers was born sixty-two years ago in York township, Steuben county, and had spent his entire life in Angola. It is said of him that he numbered among his personal acquaintances practically the entire citizenship of the county. He was a man of quaint personality and genial manners and the

LITTLE TOWN HAS HEAVY FIRE LOSS

Flames at Bangor, Pa., Wipe Out Flory Plant and Threaten Town.

DAMAGE IS $750,000

Bangor, Pa., Aug. 1.—The fire which started here late last night and threatened to burn out the heart of Bangor's business district was extinguished early today. The entire plant of the S. Flory Manufacturing company operating machine and foundry shops was destroyed with the exception of one small building and the mill and grain elevator of the Flory Milling company and one dwelling house were also burned. The total loss is estimated at $750,000.

The fire started in the plant of the Flory Manufacturing company and spread rapidly because of a scarcity of water. Assistance was summoned from Pen Argyl and Eaton and with the help of the fire companies from these places, the flames were brought under control. Between 500 and 600 men are temporarily thrown out of employment.

The Flory company manufactured farming implements, stationary engines and a general line of manufactures and mouldings. It did special work for concerns all over the country and the patterns for this work were completely destroyed. The patterns alone were valued at $200,000. The Flory plant was located here when Bangor was a mere speck on the map and the town grew up around it and was surrounded by business houses, banks and dwellings.

AS RIDER ON TARIFF BILL

Senator Tillman Advocates Temporary Currency Legislation.

PUTS SUGGESTION UP TO PRESIDENT

Believes Country Would Applaud Giving 'Em Dose of Both.

Washington, Aug. 1.—Currency legislation of a temporary nature as a rider on the tariff bill, was urged upon President Wilson today by Senator Tillman as highly desirable.

Upon leaving the white house, Senator Tillman made this explanation of his visit:

"The purpose of my visit to the white house was to suggest to the president the advisability of preparing an amendment to the tariff bill which would give us immediate money in the south and west for moving the crops and jam both through the senate by night sessions if necessary. I told him the republicans seemed to object more strenuously to currency legislation than to tariff legislation and I felt the people of the country would applaud if we gave them a dose of both and held their noses until they swallowed."

Gronna Continues Attack.

Senator Gronna, of North Dakota, continued his assault in the senate today on the Underwood-Simmons tariff bill. He compared the proposed rates on all agricultural products with the tariffs of other countries and asserted that in everything the farmer raises is put at a great disadvantage.

Senator Catron, republican, of New Mexico, opposed free raw wool and the reduction in woolen manufactures in a speech today.

"If this bill is carried into law," Senator Catron declared, "a blow will be given to the sheep industry which will extinguish it unless those people interested in sheep shall do as they did in 1894 and 1895—buy all the holdings of the small owners and carry the large flocks into what would be denominated by the party in power as a trust or monopoly."

The senator further asserted that the proposed law would close the woolen mills.

A foreign monopoly would, he asserted, intervene to keep prices up and prevent cheapening the cost of living through the free list of wool and fifty per cent reduction in wool manufactures.

Predicts Smooth Sailing.

Representative A. Mitchell Palmer, chairman of the house democratic caucus, an early white house caller today, predicted smooth progress for the administration currency bill.

"The house caucus," he said, "at its meeting August 11 will adopt the administration bill without material change and will ask the banking and currency committee to report it quickly to the floor of the house. The bill will be passed and submitted to the senate just as soon as that body passes the tariff bill. I think the bill will become law during this session."

LAD OF 6 ADMITS HE FATALLY SHOT ANOTHER.

Chicago, Aug. 1.—Genaro Raffaelle, six years old, was taken into custody by the police today and confessed that he shot and mortally wounded James Paulilio, five years old, in the rear yard of 702 South Morgan street yesterday. The boy said he shot the victim because the latter struck him on the head with a stone a week ago. The Raeffele boy demonstrated with an air rifle how he had inflicted the wound.

The Awakening

IN ORDER to be able to get up the next morning earlier than usual and still feel fresh and bright, W. S. O'Rourke, the attorney, retired at 10 o'clock the other evening. The idea of getting up early was made necessary because Mr. O'Rourke was going to Detroit over the Wabash, and his train was scheduled to leave at the untimely hour of 4 o'clock.

He wound his alarm clock and set it at an hour which would give him time to dress and take a leisurely walk to the station from his home on Washington boulevard west, and then he turned in and was soon asleep.

Awakened by the jingle of the clock, he lost no time in dressing and preparing for his trip and was soon out on the dark streets. Somehow or other, Mr. O'Rourke didn't note that the darkness was very dense for such an hour in the early morning, nor did he think it strange that there should be a street car on the Jefferson line, bound for town. He made a run for the car and caught it as it was starting eastward.

"It's lucky that you caught this car," observed the conductor as Mr. O'Rourke proffered his ticket.

"Lucky? How so?" responded the attorney.

"Why, because this is our last trip.

"Last trip?—ah-er—what time is it, anyway?"

"Lucky? How So?"

"This is the 11:30 car," responded the conductor, "and we go only as far as the barns."

But Mr. O'Rourke didn't wait to hear any more. He hopped off and went back home to wait till morning—real morning. And ever since then he has been wondering how that alarm happened to get set for 11 o'clock.

AGED WOMEN ARE COURT FIGURES

Boarding House Episode is Basis of Assault and Battery Case.

NEWS OF THE POLICE

Two aged women were the principles in a police court case that grew out of a boarding house episode. Dora Parks was tried for assault and battery on Mrs. Mary Pfleidner, who conducts a hostelry at 1220 Calhoun street. It all arose from the disappearance of a padlock that secured Mrs. Parks' room. Mrs. Pfleidner's story was that Mrs. Parks shook her, thrust her fists in her face and threatened her with death. Mrs. Parks' story did not in material points differ from the testimony of the complaining witness and several other women who stay at the place. Mrs. Parks sat through the proceedings and gave her side of the affair with an appearance of supreme disgust and a vast contempt for the woman she had assailed. There was little but amusement in the case and Judge Mungovan let Mrs. Parks go with a warning to get her traps and leave the Pfleidner house forthwith, and she promised with alacrity and satisfaction.

When Chief of Police Abbott arrested Mrs. Parks he did not want to lock the aged woman in a cell and asked her if she would be in court this morning if he allowed her to go on her own recognizance.

"Well, I should say not. I won't have a thing to do with the case," she replied.

Iceman Pleads Guilty and is Fined.

Fred Fisher, a driver for the American Ice and Coal company, entered a plea of guilty to a charge that he charged 20 cents for a piece of ice that he represented to weigh fifty pounds, whereas it weighed but thirty-eight pounds. The victim of the fraud was Miss Addie H. Williams, 1015 Monroe street. Miss Williams complained to City Sealer C. B. Tolan, who filed an affidavit against Fisher and placed a John Doe warrant against Fisher's wagon companion. Fisher made no contest and gave no testimony. Judge Mungovan fined him $10 and costs, which he paid. The John Doe case was not tried. Miss Williams told Sealer Tolan that she paid for a fifty-pound piece of ice Wednesday and found that Fisher had short-weighted her fifteen pounds. When the cheating was reported yesterday she sent for the sealer. Sealer Tolan has had many complaints lately that icemen were defrauding customers and he will vigorously prosecute in any instances that he is able to prove dishonesty.

Too Ready With His Punch.

James Nelson was fined $15 and costs for beating up Andrew H. Schoolman at the Wabash depot last evening. The men are both employes of the Wabash and when Schoolman saw Nelson return to the depot alone after having left with a couple of ladies he made a good-natured remark that Nelson conceived was a reflection on the women, one of whom was his wife. He gave Schoolman a blow in the face and walked on. Schoolman followed him with the intention of apologizing for anything offensive he might have said and Nelson gave him a terrible punch in the eye, inflicting injuries that physicians say may destroy the optic and then hurled a trackman's lantern at him. The testimony, including Nelson's, showed that Schoolman had said nothing offensive and was in no way the aggressor at any time. Nelson was fined $15 and costs.

Other Cases in Court.

Charles Parks was propped against the walls of the Hamilton bank on Main street and was so drunk he did not dare move from his support when Plainclothesman Fry found him. In court he admitted he had been as drunk as any man ought to get and gave a pledge of sobriety for his release, which was given him.

"Scrantonpay," growled Harry Hughes, a drunk, when the court asked him his name and place of residence. "How's that?" asked Judge Mungovan, puzzled. "Scranton, Pennsylvania," said Hughes.

"Quite a way off. You couldn't get home today, anyhow," said the court. "We'll keep you till tomorrow and find out more about you."

Glen Snellenbarger, a youth arrested for climbing a train, said he wanted to go home to Payne, Ohio, and was allowed to do it.

Detective Sergeant Pappert overheard William Ross, employed about the Salvation army workroom, say to a companion that they would "pull off a job as soon as it got dark," and he arrested him. Ross is a Scotchman with a Harry Lauder burr on his speech. He was held until next Tuesday for investigation.

William Gunn, loiterer, and Frank Clark, drunk, were allowed to go and the case of Jack Brenning, for loitering, was dismissed. He has been returned to the poor house, from which he escaped. He is insane.

M'KIERNAN GROCERY ROBBED.

The grocery of T. J. McKiernan, 117 Grand street, was entered some time after midnight and robbed of a ham and several pairs of ladies' hose. The thief got in by smashing a large pane of glass in the front door. That the marauder suffered injury from the jagged glass was evident from the blood that stained the floor. The large stone with which the glass was broken was found on the floor inside the building. The job is ascribed to hoboes or negroes of the neighborhood.

BEGGARS TRAVEL DE LUXE.

Blind Man and Wife Hide Car While They Work Towns.

Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 1.—A blind man and his wife, sitting helpless in a broken-down motor car near Wamego, Kas., aroused the sympathy of L. A. Phillips and Guy Holmes. Holmes and Phillips are in the service of a local automobile company and travel about repairing cars. They spent two hours on the blind man's car and sent it away in good shape, the wife driving. In Wamego the "good Samaritans" explained their delay. "Yes," said a resident, "that couple travels in a motor car. They are beggars de luxe. The man fiddles and the woman sings. They are working the towns of Western Kansas. When they approach a town they hide the car in the woods until they clean up and then they speed away to the next town.

FIRST FAMILY AIRBOAT IS IN THE ROCKEFELLER FAMILY.

Chicago, Aug. 1.—Harold McCormick, the young Chicago millionaire who married John D. Rockefeller's daughter, Edith, has the only family hangar and owns the only family air boat now in captivity.

The hangar has been built close to the shore of Lake Michigan, at the McCormicg summer home at Lake Forest, and from here McCormick goes out daily in his hydroplane, usually taking family guests and friends.

The ladies visiting at the McCormick home or living in the swell neighborhood think nothing of going out of a morning for a combined air and water jaunt. Everybody wears bathing suits, because when the airboat comes down into the lake and sheets through the water at fifty to sixty miles an hour the spray flies in sheets over all hands.

Mrs. Charles W. Counselman, a Chicago society beauty, was one of McCormick's hydroplane guests a few days ago. It was her first trip.

"I have been dead until today," she cried when the airboat slipped ashore. "I vow I don't know whether it was minutes or years that I flew but it was life. I thought I had reached the top of joy when we were just skimming the lake, touching the wave tops—but when the boat poked its nose upward and leaped sheer from the water—actually flying—oh, oh, do you know what I'm going to do? I'm going straight home and set the canary free!"

McCormick's hydroplane is named "Edith," after his wife.

WILL RECOMMEND SIGNAL STATION

Board of Works Favorable to Improvement of Fire Department.

THE MUNICIPAL NEWS

The board of works in all probability will include in its budget for next year financial provision for the construction of a separate fireproof building in which to house the electric signal stations of the fire and police departments. The location of the fire department electric station in the hay loft of the central engine house exposes the entire system to incapacitation by fire and Chief Electrician Robert Gaskill has made strong and urgent recommendation for a change.

Last night the board of safety sent a communication to the board of works recommending the erection of a separate building and the board will undertake to get the means to build it if suitable ground can be found in the city's possession. A good site for the proposed building is thought to be possible in the rear of the central fire station. A two story brick building about 25x50 feet in dimensions can be accommodated there. The upper floor would be used for the signal stations and the lower floor for a storehouse. The board of works will look thoroughly into the matter.

Franchise Goes Over.

When the matter of a franchise asked for by the Fort Wayne and Northern Indiana Traction company to enable it to construct a spur from the main track on Washington street to the Berghoff brewery came up it was discovered the plans were defective in such wise as to necessitate a postponement of action until corrections can be made. Nine property owners on Wabash avenue have filed a remonstrance to the granting of this franchise.

The board also postponed action on the resolution for widening St. Mary's avenue and will give property owners a hearing the 28th inst.

Gasoline Stations.

Permission was given by the board for the installation of several gasoline stations in different parts of the city and care was taken to specify in each case such location as would prevent the station from becoming an obstruction to traffic on streets where there are street car tracks. Operators of these gasoline stations will be warned that they must make a practice of keeping the feed hose in the cabinet designed for it and not let the hose lie on the sidewalk, an unsightly and offensive custom that the board has found quite general.

Plans for New Sidewalks.

Plans were approved and resolutions were adopted for the following sidewalks: Anderson avenue, from Spy Run to the third alley east; west side of Beaver, Packard to Dayton; north side of Creighton, Lafayette to Warsaw; north side of Dayton, Indiana to Beaver; east side of Delta, Columbia to Lake; west side of Lillie, Lahmeyer to the south line of Zaumner's subdivision; south side of Oak, Division to Ohio; south side of Organ, Indiana to Broadway; south side of Wayne, Calhoun to Clinton. Specifications were changed for walks on the west side of Clinton, from the alley north of Superior to the St. Mary's river, to seven feet instead of six feet in width, and on the south side of Suttenfield, from Calhoun to Lafayette, from five to six feet in width.

Many Petitions Received.

A petition was received asking for sidewalks on both sides of State street, from Kentucky avenue to Florida drive, and was taken under advisement. Fourteen resident property owners signed the request. Another, signed by one property owner, asks that Fifth street be paved from Wells to Cass. The board believes that if Fifth street be paved the work should extend from Wells to Harrison, and the matter was taken under advisement. The project favored by the board was killed by remonstrance last spring.

Assessment rolls were confirmed for sidewalks on both sides of Wayne street, Harmer to Walton; paving of Greenwood avenue, Main to Indian creek; a sewer in the alley east of Lafayette street.

Resolutions were confirmed for the vacation of the first alley north of Wall street, Union to College, and for the vacation of Lantz avenue, Forest to State, and an adjoining alley to permit replatting.

MADE CONNERS THINK OF DATE

Fire Captain Has Served Half Century as a Member of Department.

IS PRESENTED CHAIR

Michael Conners, captain of No. 2 engine house, is today celebrating his fiftieth anniversary as a member of the Fort Wayne fire department. The veteran fire-fighter hadn't planned to celebrate, and in fact seemed entirely oblivious to the date which marks his half-century of continuous service, but the occasion was too great an event for the department to overlook, and Chief Henry Hilbrecht and his men reminded Mr. Conners that he should celebrate.

CAPT. MICHAEL CONNERS,
Fifty Years a Member of the Fort Wayne Fire Department.

Shortly after noon today a handsome Turkish leather chair was taken to Mr. Conners' home at 511 Masterson avenue, and then Mrs. Conners, at the instigation of Chief Hilbrecht and Assistant Chief George Jasper, called her husband home from the engine house. He was taken into the parlor and handed a letter which reads as follows:

Mr. Michael Conners, Captain of Engine House No. 2:

"We, the undersigned, beg leave to extend our congratulations to you on this your fiftieth anniversary as a member of the Fort Wayne fire department, and beg of you to accept this chair as a token of our esteem.

"May you continue to enjoy good health and happiness is fervent prayer of

"HENRY HILBRECHT, Chief.

"And Members of the Fort Wayne Fire Department."

Capt. Conners has been a member of the fire department since August 1, 1863. He is one of the best known men in Fort Wayne, and has always been interested in the affairs of the city. He is a little backward in stating his age, but his associates say he admits to seventy-six years. In spite of his age, and his life of hard and constant service, he is active and ever ready to respond to the alarm which means that his branch of the department must get to work.

EICKS FAMILY UNFORTUNATE.

Edward Eicks is Fourth to Undergo Operation in Seven Months.

Edward Eicks, aged ten years, son of Mrs. Louise Eicks, of rural route No. 2, out of Fort Wayne, is seriously ill at Hope hospital after having undergone an operation for relief from appendicitis last Wednesday afternoon.

Edward is the fourth member of the Eicks family to submit to surgical operations within the last seven months. The boy is being attended by Dr. J. Frank Dinnen.

PURCELL IS TO LEAVE.

Military Instructor to Join His Regiment in Texas City, Texas.

Lieutenant L. M. Purrell, military instructor at Concordia college, has been ordered to report with his regiment at Texas City, Texas, on October 1. He does not know who will be appointed to fill the vacancy occasioned here by his transfer. Mr. Purrell has been in Fort Wayne since last January, succeeding Captain Charles E. Reese.

AVALANCHE OF INJUNCTIONS.

Halts Enforcement of New Taxicab Ordinance in New York.

New York, Aug. 1.—An avalanche of injunctions served on the police today virtually prevented the enforcement of the new taxicab ordinance which went into effect at midnight. The ordinance reduced fares about one-third and abolished the private stands operated by the larger hotels and restaurants. The injunctions were obtained by the hotel and restaurant keepers who hold that they are unable to give their guests proper cab service unless they furnish private stands for the taxicab companies.

German passenger dirigibles carried 10,291 persons on regular trips last year, without killing or injuring one of them.

TRAIN SOLDIERS IN THE TRADES

Garrison Would Have Them Provide for Return to Civil Life.

HE FAVORS RESERVES

San Francisco, Cal., Aug. 1.—A big volunteer army to back up the regulars and the training of every enlisted man to a trade which will make him a useful citizen when his enlistment expires were among the plans outlined by Secretary of War Lindley M. Garrison, speaking here yesterday at a luncheon given in his honor by the chamber of commerce.

Reference by the secretary to the possible necessity of another "crisis" to wake up the people of this country aroused much interest, but he refused to comment on it after luncheon.

"We have a method of calling the youth of our land into military service as a patriotic duty," he said, "and we must have a way of training them so there will be no economic waste to the country as a result of their service to the flag. We should develop our soldiers so that they can leave the army and get out into the labor market and into professional pursuits at the age of 25 or 26, well fitted to aid in the working out of our great industrial, commercial, scientific and governmental problems.

"Back of our standing army we must have a great reserve force and this necessity must be realized even if it takes another crisis to bring it to the minds of the people. Under a volunteer law we must provide for a volunteer army to back up the regulars and the reserves and then we shall feel the fullest measure of protection.

"No one is more anti-military than I, if anti-militarism means the maintenance of a large standing army as a burden to the taxpayers. Our soldiers should be so trained that their presence in the army will result in economic good. The problem of the army is a large one, and I may remark in passing that its affairs should be so handled that we would at all times be prepared to enforce righteousness. It takes two to keep peace, as well as two to quarrel.

"The name 'war department' is a misnomer. The functions of the department I have the honor to represent are so manifold that a vast deal beside actual army affairs receives our attention. I call to your minds the building of the Isthmian canal, the great irrigation and reclamation projects, the intimate connection with the affairs of our overseas possessions and the various other problems that are the children of the war department."

GERMANY ALSO TO SPURN SHOW

Not Likely to Be Represented at the San Francisco Exposition

AND RUSSIA SAYS NO

Berlin, Aug. 1.—Although the German secretary of the interior declared today that Germany had not yet taken any action in regard to the question of participation in the Panama-Pacific exposition at San Francisco in 1915, the opinion is freely expressed in official circles that the German empire will not be represented there.

It was pointed out today that the British government's decision not to participate settles also the action of Germany as the only factor which might have induced the German government to bring pressure to bear on unwilling business men to exhibit was the fear of unfavorable comparison with Great Britain. Business men in the majority of cases declare themselves tired of the expense connected with frequent expositions and say they see no prospect of financial returns should they exhibit at San Francisco.

RUSSIA IS OUT OF IT.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 1.—The Russian government today decided not to participate officially in the San Francisco exposition.

AUSTRIA IS UNDECIDED.

Vienna Austria, Aug. 1.—A commission of representatives of the Austro-Hungarian government and of the local chambers of commerce is about to go to Toronto to visit the exposition there and will subsequently proceed to San Francisco. On this commission's report depends the reply of the Austro-Hungarian government as to participation in the Panama-Pacific exposition.

The question is largely one of fin... The government hesitates to appropriate a sum sufficiently large to assure representation on a scale commensurate with the dignity of the empire.

PLAN CITIZENS' TICKET.

Republicans and Progressives of Plymouth Trying to Unite.

Plymouth, Ind., Aug. 1.—Old line republicans and the progressives of this city are trying to get together for the nomination of an independent ticket for the municipal campaign. The democrats nominated a ticket at a recent primary and the independents will appeal to what is believed to be a rapidly growing non-partisan sentiment in local municipal politics. A meeting will be held at an early day, when some steps toward organization are likely to be taken. The ticket proposed is as follows:

Mayor—Monroe Steiner.
Councilmen at Large—Dr. Stephens and Ira Garn.
City Treasurer—Warren McFarlin.
Clerk—J. D. McCoy.
Ward candidates are to be announced at a future meeting.

FIRE DESTROYS BARN.

Decatur, Ind., Aug. 1.—The large barn on the C. D. Lewton farm, occupied by Vesta Brokaw, was completely destroyed by fire. What caused the fire remains a mystery, unless it was started by spontaneous combustion. Mr. Brokaw was first warned of the fire by a neighbor, who saw it and immediately gave the alarm. By that time, however, the flames had gained such headway that it was impossible to get in the barn to save anything. A very fortunate circumstance was that all of the live stock with the exception of a cow, was turned out into the field for the night and escaped destruction. The cow was burned to death. All of the machinery, including plows, drills, hay loader etc., were also destroyed, together with 600 bushels of oats, a large quantity of hay and other crops. Mr. Lewton carried some insurance on the barn.

WOMAN CAME TO FORT WAYNE.

Delphos, Ohio, Aug. 1.—A horse and buggy stolen in Kenton were found tied to a hitching rack at the edge of Elida and it is thought that a girl who is missing from Kenton boarded an Ohio Electric car at that place in company with a young man, bound for Fort Wayne. According to telephone messages from Kenton to the Lima police, the horse and buggy were taken from a Kenton livery barn by a young man said to be Milton Nichols, 21, of Mechanicsburg. Sarah Pierce, a young woman of Kenton, disappeared from her home Sunday night. Elida people say that a young man and a woman were seen to board a car for Fort Wayne.

OATS HARVEST IS ON.

Warsaw, Ind., Aug. 1. The farmers of Kosrinsko county are now busy cutting oats. So far as is known none of this grain has yet been threshed. Local dealers say that none has yet been marketed. The crop is not expected to be exceptionally large. The heads are well filled, but the straw is very short and is thin on the ground. The market price is thirty-three cents per bushel. A large per cent. of the wheat in the county has been threshed, but only a small proportion has been marketed. The granaries of most farmers of this section were practically empty and they had no reason for selling immediately.

LOOKING FOR HIS MOTHER.

Huntington, Ind., Aug. 1. Searching for his mother, whom he has not seen since he was a babe of one year, a young man who gave his name as Cook appealed to County Treasurer G. W. Gill for information that might lead him to a reunion. His story was one of pathos, dealing with the estrangement of father and mother and a resultant separation of mother and son. The search, it is believed, will be unavailing, for an investigation made soon after the young man's appearance at the treasurer's office gives every reason for the belief that Mrs. Cook is dead.

LIGHTNING BURNS BARNS.

Hicksville, Ohio, Aug. 1. A terrific rain and electric storm swept over this region and caused some damage. The worst reported is the destruction of two barns that were set afire by lightning. The large barn of Frank Rork, several miles east of here, on the Defiance road, was destroyed with a loss of $1,800, covered to the extent of $1,000 by insurance. At the same time the Fred Bloomdahl farm, in Auglaize township, was similarly destroyed, with a loss of $1,500. He had $750 insurance.

DELPHOS HAS GILA MONSTER.

Delphos, Ohio, Aug. 1.—Lloyd Harris, a young man living in this place, brought home with him from Arizona a live Gila monster that is attracting much attention from the curious. The reptile is fabled for the malignancy of its poison, which is said to be almost instantaneously fatal. Science does not ascribe any special lethal effects to the bite of this lizard of the alkali deserts, but its fame as a terror gets it a lot of respectable attention here.

HEALTH BOARD MEN QUIT.

Kendallville, Ind., Aug. 1.—Mayor F. E. Field will have to appoint at least two new members for the board of health, the resignations as members having been received from Dr. W. S. Williams and J. D. Hall. Ill health was assigned for each of the resignations. Dr. A. G. Coyner, the third member of the board, is also incapacitated for work now because of his health and it is possible that an entire new board will have to be named by the mayor.

FORMER ELKHART MAN DEAD.

Geneva, Ind., Aug. 1.—From Tulsa, Okla., comes word that Charles Wright, a former oil man of Berne and also well known here, was among five men who were killed in an explosion at a new oil well in that state. The accident was caused by the carelessness of a smoker.

Mrs. Norm Jacobs here received the news in clippings from papers sent her by acquaintances. Wright was 50 years old and was engaged in drilling. The body of Wright was not recovered until the day after the explosion, on account of the extreme heat about the well. All that remained of the body was the charred torso. The head, legs and arms had all been burned to ashes.

CELEBRATE GOLDEN WEDDING.

Plymouth, Ind., Aug. 1.—Mr. and Mrs. Julius Keitzman, of this city, have just celebrated their golden wedding anniversary. The occasion fell also on Mr. Keitzman's birthday and both events were observed at once in proper manner. Dinner was prepared for a company of relatives and other friends and the day passed very pleasantly. Both Mr. and Mrs. Keitzman are in fine health and full of activity. Mr. Keitzman is 77 and his wife is 73 years old.

TREMENDOUS YIELD OF WHEAT.

Plymouth, Ind., Aug. 1.—William Reed has broken all records so far as reported in raising wheat this year. On a field of eighteen acres he threshed last week 828 bushels, which is an average of forty-six bushels to the acre. From a total of fifty-four acres he threshed 1,701 bushels. Mr. Reed thinks it is a good time to grow wheat while Wilson is in office. Mr. Reed has one of the best wheat farms in Center township. He has been quite successful in growing wheat.

ELKHART COUNTY BARNS BURN.

Goshen, Ind., Aug. 1. Two large barns on the Thyous Cook farm, one and a half miles south of Elkhart, were burned to the ground when struck by lightning. All of the live stock was saved, but the entire hay and wheat crops of this year, together with some implements, fell the flames. The loss is covered by insurance in the Farmers' Home company. Soon after the blaze broke out the reflection on the sky could be plainly seen in Goshen. While there was some lightning here, the severe portion of the storm was west and north of this city. Scarcely any rain fell here.

HICKSVILLE NEWS AGED FORTY.

Hicksville, Ohio, Aug. 1.—With this week's issue of the Hicksville News that newspaper closed the fortieth year of its existence. It has been issued weekly without missing during the past thirty-nine years and bids fair to continue its existence for a similar period, and then some.

DEATH OF SILVER LAKE WOMAN.

Warsaw, Ind., Aug. 1.—Word has been received at Silver Lake announcing the death of Mrs. Elizabeth Rhodes at the home of her granddaughter, Mrs. Belle Wilkerson, in Kewanna. The funeral was held at the Kewanna Methodist church on Thursday forenoon and was in charge of Rev. Noah McCoy, of Claypool. Interment was in the Hill cemetery near Silver Lake. The deceased had been a lifelong resident of Silver Lake. She is survived by several sons and daughters.

ANXIOUS TO MOVE IN.

Auburn, Ind., Aug. 1.—The insistent demand for the early completion of the new DeKalb county court house here caused a meeting of the county commissioners with Architect M. S. Mahurin, of Fort Wayne, and Contractor Goodall, and promise was given that the work would be brought to conclusion as soon as possible. There is a special demand for a suitable room in the building where court may be held, as lack of such place is causing the court to fall behind.

MUST ELECT CITY JUDGE.

Huntington, Ind., Aug. 1.—Because the city council has failed to consolidate the office of mayor and city judge, there will be two officials elected this fall to fill the office instead of having one take entire care of the position, as heretofore. By the time of the next meting of the council it will be too late for the council to consolidate the offices.

HORSETHIEF RECAPTURED.

Huntington, Ind., Aug. 1.—Making his escape from the county jail as the door was opened by Mrs. W. E. Scott, wife of Sheriff Scott, Frank Miller, the fellow held as a horsethief, succeeded in making good his getaway for a period of ten minutes, when he was captured and returned. That the intense heat was directly the cause of his easy capture was the statement of Miller while being taken back to jail.

VAN WERT WOMAN DEAD.

Van Wert, Ohio, Aug. 1.—Edith S. Calhoun, wife of Abraham Calhoun, is dead in this city at the age of 62 years. She was born in Hoagland township, this county, and had resided in Van Wert over forty years. She was well known as a school teacher previous to her marriage to Mr. Calhoun in 1896.

TIMBER CUTTER HURT.

NEWS OF FORT WAYNE'S NEIGHBORS

ANTI-SALOON FORCE TO FIGHT LICENSE

Warsaw Temperance People Preparing to Wage Hot War Against the "Wets" in Election.

Warsaw, Ind., Aug. 1.—When the county commissioners meet in their regular monthly session on Monday, August 4, they will probably give immediate attention to the petition which is on file asking for an option election in Warsaw. If the petition is found to carry the required number of signatures, the election will be ordered on some date within thirty days. The commissioners have the right to set any day they may desire for the election. If the commissioners' action on former petitions can be taken as a guide to their probable action in the present case, it is likely that the election will be ordered for Tuesday, August 26, or Tuesday, September 2.

While the temperance people feel almost certain that the election will result in a victory even greater than that of the past two elections, they do not intend to take any chances and will conduct a campaign with all the vigor that would be used if the chances for a "wet" victory were more likely. The election will come at a time when the "drys" will have an opportunity to employ the services of some of the world's greatest saloon fighters. The great Winona Bible Conference will be in session from August 22 to August 29, and during that time great preachers and lecturers from all parts of the world will be here.

Among them will be such men as Rev. "Gypsy" Smith, "Catch-My-Pal" Patterson, Rev. "Billy" Sunday, Rev. J. Wilbur Chapman and many others who are known the world over for their great power in fighting the liquor traffic. It is expected that many of these noted persons will willingly offer their services in giving aid to the fight against the return of saloons to the community which they visit each year at the time of the annual Bible Conference.

DIVORCE SUIT FROM BALBEC.

Woman Alleges Husband Abandoned Her Three Months After Wedding.

Portland, Ind., Aug. 1.—Suit for divorce and the restoration of her maiden name was instituted in the circuit court by Mrs. Clara R. McCartney, of Balbec, against William P. McCartney. Abandonment just three months to the day following their marriage is alleged in the complaint, together with failure to provide. The last heard of the defendant he was in Mexico. The plaintiff was formerly Miss Clara R. Eberly.

ON A DELINQUENCY CHARGE.

Portland Lad Accused of Drawing Knife on Young Boy.

Portland, Ind., Aug. 1.—Walter Arnett, 11, was arrested on a charge of delinquency, preferred against him by Thomas Nelson, father of Howard Nelson, a playmate of the Arnett lad. The boy is charged with drawing a knife on the Nelson youngster and threatening to use it. He is also charged with the habitual use of profane language. The boy was turned over to the custody of C. C. Hartzell, who today became truant officer of Jay county, and by virtue of that office must serve also as probation officer. The case, after being investigated, will be heard later.

WABASH MAN MEETS A TERRIBLE DEATH

John Herndorf, Paper Mill Employe, Electrocuted and Great Holes Are Burned in Body.

Wabash, Ind., Aug. 1. One of the most distressing accidents which has occurred in this city for some time happened yesterday afternoon when John Hendorf, who for the past eighteen or twenty years has been employed as engineer at the coating mills, was electrocuted, death being instantaneous.

There were no witnesses to the terrible accident and the first intimation of what had occurred was when Walter Scott, helper at the United Paper Board company, happened to walk into the room and found Mr. Hendorf lying lifeless upon the floor at the side of the large dynamo.

When last seen alive the unfortunate man was standing at the side of the large dynamo with a wrench in his hand, supposedly tightening up some bolts on the machine. Although there were no witnesses to the frightful accident, it is generally thought that he was overcome with the heat while working at the side of the machine and fell over against the dynamo, the electricity entering his body at the head and also at the shoulders, causing two complete circuits to pass through the body.

Two large holes were burned in his armpits showing where the electricity had come out and the upper part of his head was also burned where he had fallen over against the revolving brush. The body was taken to the W. P. Jones & Son's morgue, where it was prepared for burial.

Mr. Hendorf, who was about 55 years of age, had made his home in this city for the last thirty years and was well known and well liked by all who had occasion to come in contact with him. He is survived by the widow and three sons.

POISONED BY SPIDER'S BITE.

Hartford City, Ind., Aug. 1.—Carney Capper is carrying his right hand in a sling as the result of an infection which has caused the member to swell almost twice normal size. A week ago Wednesday Carney was working in the garden at home, loosening the dirt in a radish patch. In stooping over he put one hand against the fence. He felt a stinging sensation and upon looking at his hand noticed a little red spot between the knuckles of the little and third fingers. He paid little attention until several days later when his hand and arm began to swell and pain him. A physician diagnosed the trouble as poisoning and said that the wound had the appearance of a spider bite. Upon returning home Capper went out in the garden to look for spiders. He found a nest containing seven big black spiders in the fence near the spot where he had been holding.

NOBLE COUNTY SETTLERS.

Albion, Ind., Aug. 1.—The date for the annual reunion of the Old Settlers' association of Noble county has been changed to August 13, one day earlier than was originally fixed. This will bring the reunion on the opening day of the Albion Chautauqua, which will continue three days and afford the pioneers and their friends an opportunity to attend both events.

THE SENTINEL'S DAILY SCRIPTURE READING.

Luke 17:19-31.

19 There was a certain rich man, which was clothed in purple and fine linen
20 And there was a certain beggar
120And there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, which was laid at his gate, full of sores,
21 And desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the rich man's table: moreover the dogs came and licked his sores.
22 And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels into Abraham's bosom: the rich man also died, and was buried;
23 And in hell he lift up his eyes, bing in torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom.
24 And he cried and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; for I am tormented in this flame.
25 But Abraham said, Son, remember that thou in thy lifetime receivedst thy good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things; but now he is comforted, and thou art tormented.
26 And besides all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed: so that they which would pass from hence to you cannot; neither can they pass to us, that would come from thence.
27 Then he said, I pray thee therefore, father, that thou wouldest send him to my father's house:
28 For I have five brethren; that he may testify unto them, lest they also come into this place of torment.
29 Abraham saith unto him, They have Moses and the prophets; let them hear them.
30 And he said, Nay, father Abraham: but if one went unto them from the dead, they will repent.
31 And he said unto him, If they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, though one rose from the dead.

The Principle at Stake.

The mass convention to be held at the court house assembly room this evening, where voters of every political faith have been invited to participate in the nomination of a non-partisan ticket marks an important epoch in Fort Wayne's municipal life. It is in no sense a question of personal triumph for this candidate or that candidate. It is the enunciation of the principle of citizenship and not political party as the supreme element in the rule of cities. It will mark the launching of the first organized, concerted effort ever made locally to banish partisan domination of municipal affairs and to establish in its stead a city government in which honest efficiency shall be the keynote. It would give first concern to the municipal welfare of Fort Wayne rather than to the perpetuation of party supremacy. It is an effort to efface imaginary party lines that are simply without logical defense in municipal affairs because they are utterly meaningless in that connection. It is an appeal for a pull together on the basis of common citizenship by men of every shade of political belief to give Fort Wayne a better government than it has ever been able to secure under the senseless wrangle over party divisions. Men of high calibre do not allow party politics to govern them in their business activities, and the corporate city of Fort Wayne is beyond all question the greatest business enterprise within its borders. With the occasional exception of those who might profit financially from some forms of lawlessness, all the people of Fort Wayne want good government. They want clean government. They want efficient government. There is infinitely better prospect of securing it under a united action for common civic welfare than with partisan divisions fighting each other without being able to give a satisfactory excuse for doing so other than the fact that they have always done so. American cities today which are enjoying the largest measure of prosperity and making the most splendid civic progress are those which have banished the archaic system of political partisanism and devote themselves to the common cause of better government from a common-sense basis. The plea of party loyalty in city affairs is wholly specious, for no basic principle of party faith enters into it even remotely. Upon this fact practically all men agree. The principle of independent action in city affairs is gaining ground at a tremendous rate in America. The sooner Fort Wayne adopts it, the sooner she will begin to enjoy the largest measure of possibility in better government.

It is regrettable, of course, that Great Britain will make no governmental representation at the Panama-Pacific exposition, but now it will be just like those San Francisco folk to insist that they can give the show without the aid of our English friends if they are compelled to do it.

It may be too late to carry through the public swimming pool project this year, as many of its sponsors believe, but we at least have on hand a lot of valuable agitation which ought to give the proposition an early start next spring.

Friends of the "wet" side of the case who brutally beat up the detectives of the "dry" forces at Muncie will doubtless realize before the thing is over that fistic argument has lost a great deal of its persuasive power in convincing the public of the justness of the cause it seeks to uphold by brute force.

HUMAN NATURE..

(Kansas City Star.)

In the lobby investigation Senator Townsend complains that "the sensational is too prominently featured." It is human nature. If Mr. and Mrs. Jones live happily together for twenty-five years the neighbors never say a word about it. But if once in that quarter century Mr. Jones comes home and beats his wife the town gossips about it forever.

It is the comparatively small number of congressmen who were reached by the lobby that the public is interested in just now—not the virtuous ones.

PRISONERS AND DEPENDENTS.

(Cleveland Plain Dealer.)

Ohio will take an important step on August 1 when under a new law earnings of state prisoners are to be paid for the support of their families. With this act will come the fixing of a scale of compensation for men doing labor in the penitentiary and reformatory.

This law means that prisoners may no longer shake off the responsibility for their dependents. It will correct, in part, the injustice visited on the wife and children which has been one of the principal evils of the old penal code. Even in the penitentiary the man must shoulder and carry some part of the burden he has assumed.

The act provides he shall be given employment, that his earnings above the cost of his maintenance shall go to the support of his dependents. It is a step toward justice, in the interest of social economy that, wisely applied, can hardly fail to produce beneficial results.

With the factories in the penitentiary and reformatory employment for all prisoners may ultimately be found. If the convict retains those qualities and ambitions which are the foundation for rebuilding his career, he will gladly avail himself of this new tie giving him an active connection with the outside world. If he seeks to disregard his obligations it will be wholesome that he be compelled to carry them.

Society has long been familiar with the plight of women and children left with no provider when the husband and father runs afoul of the law. On them often falls the heavier penalty. Society ought to be able to penalize the man without wrecking the home and making its helpless ones paupers. The new law is an effort to solve the problem. The purpose of the law is good and it ought to be so carefully administered that the best results are secured.

FRECKLES

Don't Hide Them With a Veil: Remove Them With the Othine Prescription.

This prescription for the removal of freckles was written by a prominent physician and is usually so successful in removing freckles and giving a clear, beautiful complexion that it is sold by Meyer Bros. Co. under an absolute guarantee to refund the money if it fails.

Don't hide your freckles under a veil; get an ounce of othine and remove them. Even the first few applications should show a wonderful improvement, some of the lighter freckles vanishing entirely.

Be sure to ask the druggist for the double strength othine; it is this that is sold on the money-back guarantee.

PEOPLE ARE GREATLY PLEASED WITH RESULTS

Obtained Relief So Quickly That They Are Anxious to Give the Glad Tidings to the World.

The following among the many indorsements received by the United Specialists certainly has satisfied the people as to the good work being done by them, and of their earnestness and sincerity:

FORT WAYNE, Ind.,
July 15, 1913.

I had been ill for nearly ten years. It started with a severe pain in my back. I have been practically helpless for many weeks at a time. At other times I did my work through will power alone.

I have treated with a great number of physicians at Wabash and Huntington. I treated with three physicians in Fort Wayne.

In meeting all these physicians no one ever gave me a thorough examination. On July 10th I called on the United Specialists; these doctors gave me a most thorough examination. I found that my case was not rheumatism but a deep-seated deflex condition. I determined to give them a trial. In six days I have already gained three pounds. I am rid of the distress and feel that I will be a well man if I continue my treatment.

I can now go about my work almost like a new man. Before I began treatment I could not sit down or keep still on account of the pain. I am a machinist by trade; am well known in Fort Wayne and vicinity. Anyone is welcome to call on me and I will tell them what has been done for me by the United Specialists.

ELMER MAHONEY,
213 East Williams St.
July 10, 1913.

To the Public:—

Last December I was taken ill with a severe pain in my right side. I got so that I could not eat or digest any food, and could not get about. My condition was so bad that I could not do any work. My neighbors would come in to look after it for me. I treated with the local doctors and used several kinds of patent medicines. They did me no good. July 1 I started treatment with the United Specialists. Already I eat as well as I did years ago, and that awful pain has entirely gone. Last week I did my own washing without trouble. I now sleep perfectly. I am well known in Garrett and nearly every one there knows the condition I was in before treating with these specialists. Any one is welcome to call on me in reference to my case.

MRS. HERMAN PERRY,
Garrett, Ind.,
July 19, 1913.

To the Public:—

Last fall I was taken ill with la grippe, which was followed with intense nervousness, stomach trouble and a general breakdown. While I took treatment from other doctors, my condition kept getting worse. I had most severe headaches. One week ago I began treatment with the United Specialists. Already I feel like a new woman. I must say these physicians have done me a wonderful good in the time I have taken treatment. Any suffering person is welcome to call on me in reference to my condition. I have lived in Fort Wayne and vicinity all of my life and am well known here.

Respectfully,
SARAH COLEMAN,
336 Madison St.,
Fort Wayne, Ind.

This ought to convince the most skeptical as to what can be done for any one who is in earnest in their desire for help. Although it is to be regretted that is a fact that some people start treatment with the expectation of obtaining a cure in a few days' time. Such people are likely to be disappointed, as any deep-seated, chronic disease is naturally the result of years of imperfect treatment or from neglect. However, as has been seen by the readers of this paper from the testimonials given by citizens of Fort Wayne and nearby cities, almost miraculous results have been procured in a very few days by these master specialists. Many men who have been treated by specialists and other physicians for months or years, already have asked them to refer other suffering men to them. Many of the best women of Fort Wayne and vicinity have given them great praise for the sincerity of their purpose and the earnestness and thoroughness of their examinations and their unfailing courtesy to the afflicted.

They treat chronic and nervous diseases, including goitre, epilepsy, stomach, intestinal troubles. In fact, all deep-seated, chronic disease and special diseases of men and women.

Their hours are from 9 to 12, 1 to 5; evenings, 7 to 8, and Sundays from 9 to 12.—Adv.

CLUB POSTPONES ACTION ON POOL

Commercial Club Directors Have Faith in New Traffic Department.

SIX NEW MEMBERS

Directors of the Fort Wayne Commercial club met Thursday evening and indefinitely postponed action on the proposed public swimming pool. The committee report showed that a bathing pool such as Fort Wayne feels in need of would cost approximately $8,000 and the directors do not believe that this amount can be raised by popular subscription, at least at this time. It is understood that the matter has been tabled until next year.

Superintendent S. K. Blair, of the Fort Wayne division of the Nickel Plate, who was to have addressed the directors on the proposed branch line from St. Mary's, O., to connect with the Nickel Plate east of this city, was unable to be present. Members of the Commercial club, who originally started the project, are enthusiastic over the proposition, which would give the shortest possible rail route between Columbus, O., and Chicago, by way of Fort Wayne.

The directors commended the work of the Fort Wayne Traffic Bureau, a department established about one year ago. A report submitted by Manager A. E. Decker was read and approved by the directors, who will make further efforts for the advancement of the bureau.

Within the next two weeks President W. M. Gitlin will select delegates to represent Fort Wayne at the annual convention of the Federated Commercial Clubs of Indiana, to be held at Indianapolis October 1 and 2. Theodore F. Thieme, of this city, will address the convention on the subject, "Business Form of City Government," and Secretary Charles L. Biederwolf will speak on "Community Development by Commercial Club Secretaries."

The following new members have been admitted: H. I. Hactman, Charles M. Preble, C. J. Naughton and M. Ruben; W. A. Clugston, of Columbia City, and C. E. Yonker, of Portland.

BLUFFTON NEWS.

Bluffton, Ind., Aug. 1.—At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Brickley, near Murray, occurred yesterday the wedding of Miss Lucy Mildred Brickley and Mr. Ralph Garrison Davis, son of Mel Davis and wife. The wedding was witnessed by only the immediate families of the couple and the ceremony was performed by the Rev. Baker, of the Christian church at Murray. Following the wedding the couple left for the northern part of Indiana, where they will remain until August 10. Mr. Davis is the junior member of the firm of Davis & Son, owners of a garage here.

Late yesterday afternoon Miss Edith Grove, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wils Grove, underwent an operation for appendicitis.

Harley Derr, a Markle barber, was given a good hazing Monday evening by his many friends in Markle, following his marriage to Miss Glendolin Preskey. The young man was transported to about five miles from his home town and left to find his way back to his waiting bride. Love finds a way, is the old saying, and true to it the young man galloped into the town of Markle about 2 o'clock in the morning.

Guy Wilkins the young man who was possessed of the idea that he was a circus promoter yesterday, will be the subject of an inquest today, inquiring into his sanity. His mind has been deranged for the past two days and his one idea is that he is the promoter of a big circus. Ordinarily he is a bright young man, but the continued heat of the past few days is believed to have unbalanced his mind.

Between fifty and seventy-five young men of the county have signified their intention of taking part in the contests given every year by Purdue university. Five classes of live stock, two of corn and one of wheat are in the money. The money won is to be used to help defray the expenses of the successful boys while in Purdue.

CHOKED BY HIS OWN TONGUE.

Young Man Found Dead in Bed From Peculiar Cause.

Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 1.—Choked by his own tongue, Charles Arioo, 22 years old, of 8123 Mingo avenue, was found dead in bed by his sister, Mrs. Anna Mario. According to information secured by the Thirty-second district police, who investigated the case, Arioso had been subjected to fits. When his sister went to his room to wake him she found him unconscious, his mouth peculiarly distorted. Mrs. Mario summoned Dr. McCormick, of Island road and Tinicum avenue, who, upon examining the man, pronounced him dead. A closer examination disclosed the fact that his tongue had become lodged in his throat, thereby choking him to death.

FIRE RAGES; ROOSTER CROWS.

Fowl Perched on Roof of Burning Building Rescued by Firemen.

New York, Aug. 1.—The rescue of a white rooster at a fire in Kearney, N. J., attracted almost as much attention as destruction of the Kearney hat works and an adjoining building, aggregating $25,000 in value. The fowl, which had in some manner found its way to top of the three-story frame factory, was perched on a cornice when the firemen arrived, and it remained there throughout the conflagration, crowing lustily at convenient intervals. Ladders finally were placed against the roof and the rooster brought down amid the cheers of the spectators.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

FOOLED IN TRAGIC EXIT.

Drug Clerk and Policeman Unkind to Would-Be Suicide.

Weehawken, N. J., Aug. 1.—"Give me a quarter's worth of carbolic acid," a young man said to Henry Deiss, a clerk in Dischoff's drug store. "What do you want with it?" asked Deiss, who noticed the man looked dejected. "I want to die; I'm out of a job and broke," was the answer. Deiss mixed an extremely bitter-tasting but harmless concoction and gave it to the man, who drank it and sank to the ground. Policeman Timoney came along. "Get up and come with me," he commanded. "Don't you see I'm a dying man?" sputtered the young man on the ground. "I've taken poison; let me die quick." But Timoney yanked him to his feet and took him to the police station. He said he was Louis Miller, 21 years old, of Chicago.

HE DISROBES IN THEATER.

Colorado Man Dreams He Is at Home With Funny Results.

Loveland, Col., Aug. 1.—To dream he was at home and to carry the presumption so far as partially to disrobe, only to be awakened to the stern reality of the occasion and find he was occupying a seat in the Novelty theater, was the experience of J. B. Witner and was the means of causing him untold embarrassment. A large crowd witnessed his discomfiture and his embarrassment was not mitigated by the fact that he was able to tell a plausible story. It was not until the close of the performance that his repose was disturbed by the local police, who had been called by the management when he started to disrobe.

JOKE COSTS BOY AN EYE.

Playmate Shakes Bottle of Ammonia Just for Fun.

Muskogee, Okla., Aug. 1.—Frank Barklow, a lad of 11, found a bottle of ammonia and proceeded to have some sport with his playmates by telling them that it was perfume and asking them to take a smell, shaking a little of the drug into their nostrils when they did so and watching their pained surprise. Tragic results followed when the bottle was offered to Maurice Hamilton, aged 12. Barklow shook the bottle too hard and some of the fluid was dashed into Hamilton's eyes. He will lose the sight of one eye, a part of which has already been removed, and the physicians are not very sanguine that they will be able to save the other eye.

Kaiser William Lauds Aquatic Ability of Young Germans.

Berlin, Aug. 1.—Speaking of a banquet in the liner Victoria Luise at Brunsbuttel on the occasion of the Elbe regatta, the kaiser said: "Among the jubilee celebrations I still see clear before me the day at Grunau, when 630 boats and 3,000 oarsmen, representing over 50,000 German rowing men, mustered at the regatta. From the Rhine to the Pregel all had come who were all to tell us that Germany had more rowing clubs than all the rest of Europe together. That is a success of which I am proud. When I came to the throne there were eight schools at which aquatic sports were practiced. Now there are 360. That gives us the boys we need—no supermen, but healthy, moral men, with sound limbs and healthy and moral principles."

Miss Ethel Harper, whose marriage to Elmer Wertman will take place in September, was the honor guest at a pretty afternoon party on Wednesday for which Mrs. Charles L. W. Gross, of West Jefferson street, was the hostess. The guests were the Reapers, or Sunday school class which Mrs. Gross teaches, and they took with them a shower of appropriate and pretty gifts for a pre-nuptial affair which were given to Miss Harper.

Covey—Down.

"Friends in Hillsdale, Mich., were interested in the announcement of the recent wedding of two former Hillsdale college students, Roy Covey and Miss Inez Down. The wedding took place at the home of the bride in Pierceton, Ind. Mr. and Mrs. Covey will reside at Fort Wayne, Mr. Covey having a position as inspector with the Pennsylvania railroad company. Mr. Covey is a gradnate of the high school here and both himself and bride were students of the college for two years.

"One of the local newspapers published quite an account of the wedding, though it was but a quiet home affair, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Down, with only the relatives present. The pastor of the Presbyterian church officiated. After the ceremony a wedding dinner was served. Miss Down has been very popular in her home town, and she has been teaching several years, the last year at Danville. Mr. Covey had a home all prepared for his bride, at 516 East Leith street, Fort Wayne."—The Hillsdale Daily.

AT THE MAJESTIC.

ALL STAR CAST IN FINE FEATHERS

Open Majestic Season Tomorrow, Matinee and Night.

All star casts are a rarity on the stage. Once in a while they are gathered for special engagements in New York or Chicago, and when they are taken on the road only one of the original company may be retained, while the rest of the cast is made up of lesser lights. The case is different with "Fine Feathers." This all star production, which broke all records at the Cort theater Chicago, the first half of the season, and then went to the Astor theater, New York, where it duplicated its success, comes here almost direct from its Broadway triumph, with not a single change in its original cast of stars. The company still includes the names of Robert Edeson, Wilton Lackaye, Max Figman, Rose Coghlan, Lolita Robertson and Amelia Somers—a group of stellar actors who have made "Fine Feathers" the biggest dramatic sensation in many years. So far it has not been seen anywhere outside of New York and Chicago, and only a few cities will be given an opportunity to see the original production. The engagement here is tomorrow, matinee and night.

Had Eugene Walter written no other play than "Fine Feathers," he could easily rest on his laurels and be ranked among the great dramatists of the age; but when it is known that this author also wrote "Paid in Full," "The Easiest Way," "The Wolf" and other recent successes, the public expects a big, vital drama from his pen. And in "Fine Feathers" he has not disappointed the public. He has taken an every day theme one that is woven into the very woof of American home life today—and given it a dramatic setting that causes an audience to sit up in rouse silence or rise to a pitch of excitement as the scenes and situations of the story unfold themselves.

To the Ladies--

Who are lovers of Irish Crochet are especially invited to call and see one of the finest lines in Fort Wayne, or in fact in the state, of Collars, Cuffs, Laces, Insertions, Motive, Medallion and thousands of other things. Remember, Saturday is the last day of this sale.

ORIENTAL STORE, No. 122 E. Wayne St.

P. S.—These goods are made by the Oriental girls, who are only making from 5 to 10 cents a day. That's why we can sell this goods at 50 cents on the dollar.

NEW FALL FASHIONS IN TOGS AND DOGS.

The up-to-date young girl this fall will wear a loose-belted coat that is very loose. She will wear a separate skirt, which will blend with the coat, but will not be of the same color or material. Her hat of plain felt will match her coat, and her shoes will have the low English heels.

The costume pictured shows a skirt of blue and white check, with a plain blue coat. This kind of a costume would be particularly sensible for the girl who works in a business office, as well as the girl who is going away to school.

Fashion, for once, says you may look healthy, comfortable and wholesome.

AT THE EMPRESS

With the delightful change in the temperature, tonight will doubtless be ideal for show-going, and with the excellent bill of five standard acts on view at the Empress besides three reels of delightful Kinemacolor pictures, it is needless to remark that the crowds will be headed Empressward. The show is a pleasing one this week, from every angle. Opening with a new picture called "His Brother's Keeper," a fine western subject, the show is given a lively start. The Chiarmonte Bros. present an exciting performance on the revolving ladder, and while the exhibition is brief it is thrilling.

The Crotty Trio entertain with songs, dances and talk, and Beauvias, Maridor & Co. are seen in a comedy dramatic playlet called "The Wildflower." The sketch has to do with the quest of an Indian for her white lover, and her ultimate winning back of his affection. It is prettily mounted and well acted.

Harry Bestry dances and sings and the "Texas Tommy" dancers occupy the feature spot with a setting oriental and with two Chinese attempting to duplicate the dancing stunts of the Americans. Its a novel act and goes with a dash that leaves no opportunity for dull moments.

An interesting Kinemacolor reel completes the bill. The usual matinee for children will be given Saturday afternoon, youngsters under twelve years of age being admitted for five cents.

AT THE JEFFERSON

Even the rain could not keep the crowds away from the Jefferson last night where "Spectre of the Sea" was showing. Another double bill is on tonight, which includes the "Spectre of the Sea" and "When the Tide Turns," also six amateur vaudeville acts. This is the biggest show in town tonight. Saturday comes a real thriller in two reels entitled, "Nihilists' Vengeance." Monday for one week comes the marvelous Vivaphone singing and talking motion pictures. This is the only perfect talking machine in existence and is now showing for the first time in the United States and the Jefferson has the exclusive rights for Fort Wayne. The regular program will be given with the Vivaphone. The opera "Faust" will be given one afternoon and evening during the week. The parts are sung by artists of international reputation. You will see and hear a five dollar show for ten cents.

THE AIRDOME.

No place in the city has attracted more attention among the great masses of amusement lovers than the Airdome, which has been enjoying a prosperous season.

The "movies" showing Mme. Bernhardt in her big success, "LaTosca," are drawing the crowds so far this week, and with the vaudeville part of the program consisting of two acts there is every reason to believe that they will be turning them away before the week is over. In addition to the Bernhardt pictures other reels of a lighter nature will be shown this evening and for the balance of the engagement.

REVIVAL OF PLEATED SKIRTS.

This season has brought the waist back to its normal position, which is a very good thing, and has also revived the fashion of pleated gowns. In face of the very close-fitting skirt of the moment, the pleats are a relief to the eye of the spectator, and must be very much more comfortable to the wearer than the narrow hem which is dragged forward with each step, jerking the heels and rendering the walk very ungraceful. American women have never been celebrated for walking well, but they have been worse than ever of late, what with high heels, excessively narrow skirts, a stoop forward that is as bad for health as it is ungraceful, and clothes in general ungainly in cut and often grotesque in outline. There are many—very many—exceptions to the rule, but that the above description applies to thousands upon thousands of our countrywomen at the present time can scarcely be denied. The general opinion is that the fashions of the day are, for the most part, preposterous.

MAKING HATPINS.

An enterprising young woman has been making hatpins for her summer hats of lace. She uses long white-headed pins, some button molds and scraps of lace and silk. Not a very expensive outlay, as you can see.

She takes a button mold and cuts out a circle of white silk or satin twice the size; also a piece of lace, which she puts over the silk, gathering them together round the outer edge and drawing them up like a hood or cap over the mould and fastening them neatly underneath.

The white-headed hatpin is then run firmly through the hole in the center of the top as far as it will go, and secured underneath with a little glue to hold it in place.

The heavier the lace and the more padded and raised the design the prettier the effect.

TO WASH ECRU LACE.

To keep the color of ecru lace when washing it, add a little yellow ochre to the starch. Mix a small amount of the ochre with boiling water and add it to the starch, or to the last rinsing water if starch is not used. Ochre may be bought at any paint store.

After basting insertion on any goods that is to be cut away from underneath, take a piece of stiff pasteboard about four inches in length and just the right width to slip in between the goods and lace. You can then cut away the goods, with no liklihood of cutting the lace, as the pasteboard protects it.

ARKANSAS DIAMONDS DAZZLE.

Splendid Specimens Among 1,400 Stones Shown in New York.

New York, Aug. 1.—A report of the United States Geological Survey received in Maiden Lane shows that Uncle Sam is going in for jewelry at a surprising rate of speed. The Arkansas diamonds are treated to a very serious discussion. About 1,400 stones, weighing 350 carats, have been taken from the fields and some of them are considered splendid specimens. Montana produced $195,505 worth of sapphires in 1912. Humboldt county, Nevada, yielded opals of a size and value to establish fair rivalry with Australia. Emeralds and amethysts were found in North Carolina and some fine pearls are being taken from the Mississippi river and tributary streams.

16-Year-Old Girl Writes to President About the Tariff.

LITTLE MISS GREENFIELD.

New York, Aug. 1.—This is Julia Greenfield, who lives down in the crowded east side of New York, where money is not so common as that hungry feeling every one seems to get at least three times a day.

She is in the banana business and many of her customers are little raggedy boys and girls who only have a few pennies to spend on their lunch.

Miss Julia is only 16. The other day she heard that the government at Washington was going to put a tariff on bananas.

She knew she did not have the money to go to Washington and ask the government to do this.

She knew if the tax was put on it would raise the price of bananas.

She knew that if the price was raised, many of her little customers would have only half as much to eat as they usually had.

So what do you suppose she did?

She wrote a letter to President Wilson. She told him that the little poor folks over where she sells bananas could not afford to pay any more for them. She asked him to see that the tax was not put on them.

This young girl, who is so interested in the little folks who live around her, knows her letter has been received, because she has had an answer already. She is hoping and trusting that her one small voice will be heeded.

GIVES CULVER GOOD RANK.

War Department Official Puts School Among Distinguished Ten.

Culver, Ind., Aug. 1.—Pronouncing Culver Military academy "a national asset of no little importance," the report of Capt. James P. Robinson, general staff, U. S. A., for the eighth time places the Indiana school among the ten institutions rated "distinguished" by the war department. The report of Capt. Robinson is based upon an inspection made last May, when he spent two days viewing the military work of the Culver cadets. The drill throughout he pronounced of the highest order of excellence and the spirit, from the superintendent to the newest cadet, to be remarkable. The ten schools of the country which are given the distinguished rating are entitled to name a graduate of the current year for appointment to a commission as second lieutenant for the army, while the names of all graduates are forwarded to the adjutant generals of the respective states as qualified for volunteer service.

GIVES INTERVIEW FROM PRISON CELL

Former Police Chief, Now Convict, Tells of His Experience.

CALLS IT VALUABLE

(By Fred L. Boalt.)

Walla Walla, Penitentiary, Wash., Aug. 1.—Charles W. Wappenstein, formerly chief of police of Seattle, sent thousands of men to the penitentiary. Now he is himself a convict. He was committed a year ago to serve from three to ten years for bribe-taking.

"It is not," he says, with a wry smile, "an experience which a man would seek voluntarily. It is, however, an experience without which no one, police officer or social reformer, can understand even vaguely the problem of what to do with criminals.

"First, I was a policeman on the beat; then a detective; finally chief. I thought I was 'wise.' I was 'wise' as it is possible for a man to be who has never 'done time' in prison and seen at first hand to what extent our reformatories do not reform."

Wappenstein is not the "Wappy" Seattle used to know in the tough days of the "vice syndicate."

Before he went out of the world of men and became No. 6539, he was a familiar type of the police officer—brusque and domineering in manner; heavy-handed, heavy-footed, bull-necked; sophisticated and a bit hard, taking a cynical view of life.

He had the policeman's attitude. Every suspect ought to be arrested. Every prisoner was guilty.

No. 6539 is today another sort—a gentle, rustic figure whose eyes smile almost timidly through steel-rimmed glasses. Weeks ago he asked to be transferred to the chicken house, as, on his release, he expects to go into the chicken-raising business and wants the experience.

There you may find him any day, surrounded by the clucking hens, strutting roosters, and swarms of cheeping chicks. On his grey, shoddy, high-hitched trousers, his hickory shirt, his ill-fitting, shoddy coat, are stenciled in big, black numerals—"6539."

"I was glad to get outside the wall," said Wappenstein. "It's hell in the jute mill. There's no ventilation and you have to breathe the fine particles from the jute. A few months of it is pretty nearly sure death to a man with weak lungs or who is predisposed to tuberculosis.

"I wouldn't have kicked, you understand," he went on, "if they had kept me there. You have to take your medicine when you come here. I sent others here—lots of them—and I didn't feel much sympathy for them, either.

"But I think now that I'd be able to distinguish better between mere offenders against the law and actual criminals. There are good men in this pen who ought not to be here. The trouble is that the law does not always distinguish between acts and motives. If a man commits a certain crime the law says he must be given a certain punishment.

"But why did he commit the crime? The law seldom asks.

"Yet what he did is not as important as why he did it.

"If you steal because you are hungry, should you be punished as severely as if you stole because you were greedy?

"And penitentiaries don't reform. These men, some of whom I put here, are more deeply steeped in crime and vice now than when they committed the crimes of which they were convicted.

"They are leading abnormal lives. They are locked up in tiny cells at night. They are not allowed to talk at work or at meals. All about them are guards armed with rifles. Everything about them is designed to remind them that they have fallen.

"They work, but their toil does not profit them or the state. They know they are a burden to the state—a dead loss. How are hope, ambition and pride to survive in the breast of a man who knows that he is no good to society, himself or anybody? They ought to have useful work, more liberty and more fresh air.

"There are bad men in this pen—plenty of them. There are good men. But they will not stay good long. Graduated from the 'college'—that is what crooks call penitentiaries—they will return to society with stunted bodies and dwarfed souls. They will educate others in the art of crime. They will marry and become fathers of tainted children."

CLOCK STRIKES FATAL THIRTEEN.

Jewelers Refuse to Touch Hoodoo Heirloom of Louisiana Man.

Amite City, La., Aug. 1.—George Zollenburg returned to his home, near this city, recently after another ineffectual attempt to have the jinx taken out of his grandfather's clock. The ancient timepiece is to blame for a long train of misfortune that started Friday, June 13, 1913. The clock was brought to this country by Mr. Zollenburg from the fatherland. The old-time mill had never missed a tick or let a second slip by unrecorded until noon on that fatal Friday, when Zollenburg was alarmed to hear it strike thirteen times for noon. Zollenburg told the jewelers, and not one of them would touch it. Here are a few of the things that have happened since: His rich mother-in-law died without leaving him a pfennig. His cook eloped. Twelve kittens fell in a well and were drowned. His brindle cow Blossie gave birth to triplets, all of which were black. An attempt will be made to give the clock to a distant relative in Germany whom Zollenburg does not like.

EDDIE PLANK IS TAKING A SECOND LEASE IN SPITE OF FACT THAT HE IS THIRTY-EIGGHT YEARS OF A GE.

So many left-handed athletes have done strange things that long ago the species was classified as squirrel food—nuts as it were—but even the most imaginative person would hesitate to classify that eminent Gettysburg guide, Edward S. Plank, as a pecan.

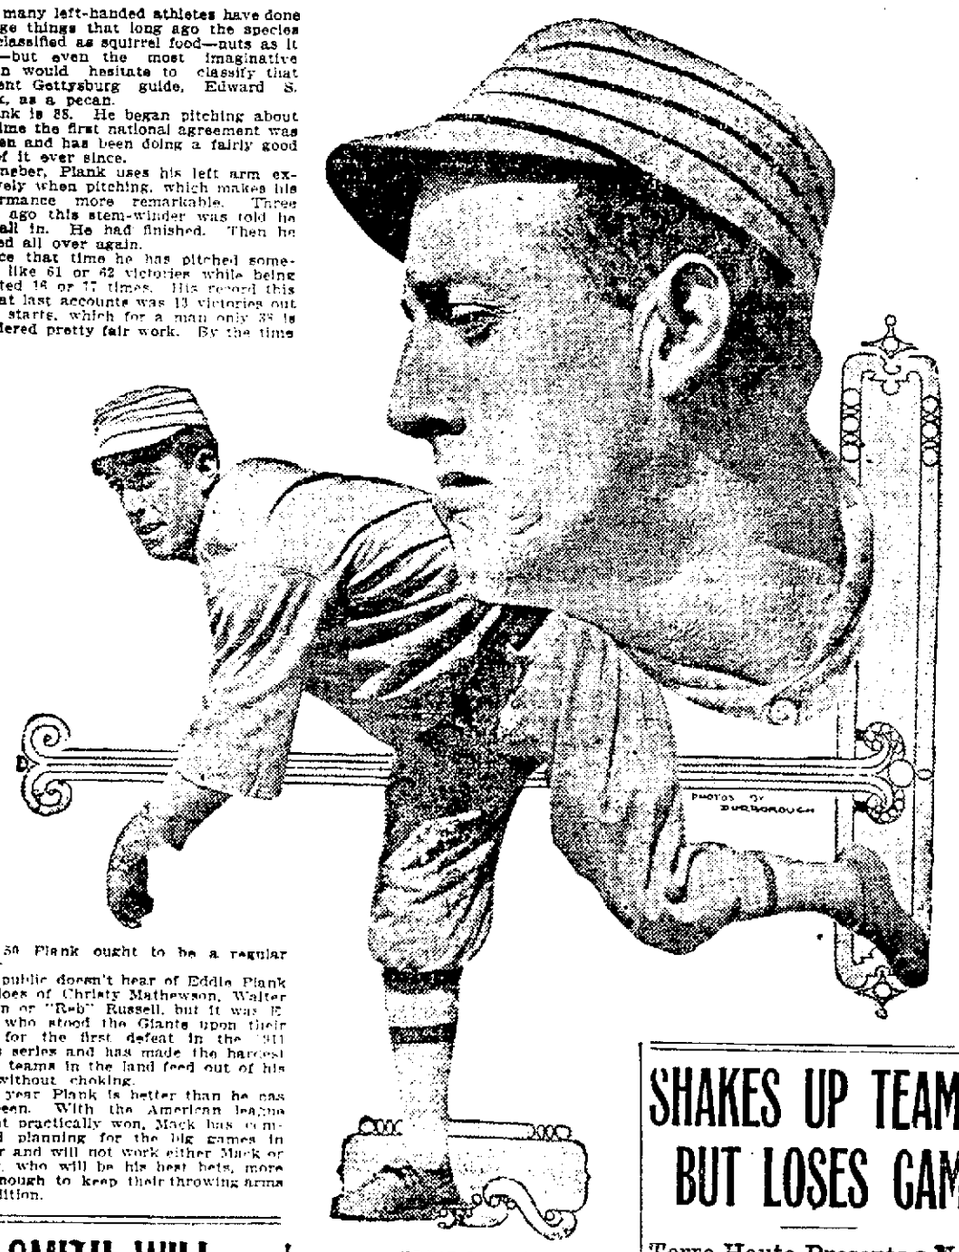
Plank is 85. He began pitching about the time the first national agreement was written and has been doing a fairly good job of it ever since.

Remeber, Plank uses his left arm exclusively when pitching, which makes his performance more remarkable. Three years ago this stem-winder was told he was all in. He had finished. Then he started all over again.

Since that time he has pitched something like 61 or 62 victories while being defeated 18 or 17 times. His record this year at last accounts was 13 victories out of 15 starts, which for a man only 38 is considered pretty fair work. By the time he is 50 Plank ought to be a regular pitcher.

The public doesn't hear of Eddie Plank as it does of Christy Mathewson, Walter Johnson or "Reb" Russell, but it was E. Plank who stood the Giants upon their heads for the first defeat in the 1911 world's series and has made the hardest hitting teams in the land feed out of his hand without choking.

This year Plank is better than he was ever been. With the American league pennant practically won, Mack has commenced planning for the big games in October and will not work either Mack or Bender, who will be his best bets, more than enough to keep their throwing arms in condition.



EDDIE PLANK.

ED SMITH WILL PITCH ONE HERE

He Will Not Do It on the Present Trip But Will Wait a While.

A DOUBLE WITH TOTS

Efforts to persuaded Ed Smith to pitch against Fort Wayne tomorrow afternoon in the final game of the present series were unavailing, although it was indicated that he would draw a crowd any time he may see fit to get in the box and try to chase his old hoodoo off the Fort Wayne lot, but he says that on the next trip here the clubs will play a Sunday game and that he will work then unless there are only a few games between his club and the second place team.

Manager William E. Essick who was known as "Vinegar Bill" until he became part owner and president of the Grand Rapids club, may try his hand in the final game of the present stand, and if he has anything like the line of stuff that he used to display here he will be a hard proposition to beat.

Pfeffer is the only player the club has sold this season, but there have been a number of inquiries about Ben Koehler, and some of the scouts are looking Bowman over. He is not with the club now on account of an infected arm, but has written that he will be ready for work by the first of next week.

Allison, a scout for the Pittsburg club, was in the grandstand yesterday looking over both clubs, but he didn't state who in particular he is watching. This is not strange as scouts never do tell anything.

Terre Haute has a postponed game here, and it will be played off on Sunday afternoon when the club makes its third appearance here this season. This game was prevented by rain the last time the club was here.

MATTESON HANGS UP VICTORY.

In his third game for the Buffalo team Matteson, the Erie pitcher sought by Claude Varnell, held Providence to seven hits and two runs and won out. Six thousand boys saw the young pitcher perform.

Foster's Mattresses are the "betterbilt," "neverstretch," "neverspread" kind, which always result in "bettersatisfied" customers.

SHAKES UP TEAM BUT LOSES GAME

Terre Haute Presents a New Man on Infield in Dayton Game.

STREAK IS BROKEN

Manager Edward J. Anderson shook up his Terre Haute team before the Dayton game yesterday but his move did no good as Rufus Gilbert chucked his game away after the Tots had tied it in the ninth by taking a wild heave at first base and permitting Warren to score from second.

There is not now a man on the Terre Haute infield who started the season there. German is the new product and he takes the place at third vacated by the sale of Charlie Pick. Harry Arndt was at first when the club started and Steve Rugon at short and afterward at third, and there have been two or three experiments at second.

Dayton had its first bit of luck in the last two weeks when Gilbert took this bad chuck to first base, and it broke a losing streak that had been on for the last ten or eleven days. Rowan pitched good ball all the way through and his support was steady.

Spaid, the young sand lot pitcher picked up by Evansville at Grand Rapids last week, held the Springfield club to five scattered hits and two runs and the men behind him piled up seven tallies and copped the game. The scores:

	R.	H.	E.
Terre Haute	1	6	1
Dayton	2	4	3

Batteries—Madden, Gilbert and Hargrave; Rowan and Warren.

	R.	H.	E.
Evansville	2	5	2
Springfield	0	7	0

Batteries—Spaid and Stratton; Hixon and Snyder.

NOTES OF THE FIRST GAME.

Atkins caught both Schmick and Tydeman off first base but lost the latter on Anderson's bad throw. Anderson atoned for his misplay by hitting for two bases in the fourth and scoring a run. He also made a good play when he tagged Steil in the second and held McGraw at third.

That little Steil sure covers a lot of ground. He knocked down a drive for Atkins in the fifth that most shortstops would never have reached.

Larry Sutton, who completed the deal with Grand Rapids for the sale of Pfeffer to Brooklyn, watched the game.

Ollie Welsh had no trouble with Pfeffer's delivery. He hit twice in three times up.

Manager Burke was caught off third in the fifth and tried an old trick when he knocked the ball out of the catcher's hand. He was caught at it and counted out.

Tutweiler and Welsh did some fast fielding on long hits made by Koehler and McGraw, checking both men up at third on drives that went to the flag pole.

Martin outguessed Koehler in the third when he called for a waste ball and nipped the runner neatly at second.

Fred Batchle takes a nice lead off first base, and he pilfered second very neatly in the fifth.

Bunny Fabrique's fielding was remarkably fast. Three runners were caught at first when he had to go nearly back of third to get ground balls. He cut 'em loose and got his men by inches.

Frankie Nespo had no very hard tasks cut out for him but he figured largely in the fleing run.

Ben Koehler made as nice a play on Tutweiler in the second as has been seen here when he cut the runner down on a hard rap that was nearly over second base.

MUST WIN TO DRAW.

(Dayton Herald.)

Dayton fans may be willing to overlook the poor record of the Vets here of late and accept the big run of injuries for its face value as the reason for the slump, but they won't support the team at the gate unless it wins. This was demonstrated Wednesday when the chamber of commerce put on its "Do It for Dayton Day" at Highland. Only 725 people paid into the park. The chamber officials worked hard to raise a crowd of 5,000, but to no use. Fans told the boosters they wouldn't go out to see a losing club, and they kept their word.

STAR HURLER IS NOT LUCKY HERE

Does Not Show to Advantage on Fort Wayne Ball Grounds.

LOST TENTH BATTLE

Edward "Jeff" Pfeffer, whose professional baseball career was started on the Fort Wayne lot, and whose performances secured recognition from the majors his second year out, is generally conceded to be the star pitching proposition of the Grand Rapids outfit and as good as any in the Central league, but he has never shown to advantage on the Fort Wayne lot.

The last time he was here he was badly beaten, and in the opening number of the three-day struggle staged on the Varnell plot yesterday he went down to defeat and lost an opportunity to bring up ten in a row as he had accumulated a straight string of nine victories up to the slab failure of the first day.

With speed, strenuity, a good curve and a cross-fire that is one of the most puzzling numbers of his big repertoire he ought to make good in the majors but folks hereabouts never see him at his best and there is probably no place on earth that he had rather do his best work than right in this enterprising city.

President Louis Heidbrener played on sentiment in the Thursday game one of his pet noodles. Mr. Azur, ladies and gentlemen. Mr. Azur is short and inclined to be portly, and is not visible to the naked eye from the front with the catcher in position.

His best thing is calling strikes. First he places his hand immediately over his circulating department and then swings it swiftly downward like you used to do when you had to get up before the school board and a bevy of fond parents and recite "The Maniac" or give your own interpretation of "Likes There a Man With a Soul So Dead."

This movement is accompanied by the single word strike, but it is spread over so much territory that it sounds like the noise you used to make when you took a stick and scraped the paint off your neighbor's picket fence as you pattered swiftly by and dragged said stick across the pickets aforesaid. Generally his work was good.

Mr. Atkins did the hurling for our side and it looked in the opening round like he was in for a trouncing but he pulled through with one tally against him and a record of demon pitching behind him. Mr. Mee popped to center as a curtain raiser and Ben Koehler landed for a triple and George Schmick followed it up with a double. Core and Letuene were disposed of, with Schmick anchored at third.

This was the sum total of runs made by the opposition. Atkins knotted the count in the third when he hit for two bases after Frankie Nespo had hurtled one down left foul line for a couple of sacks.

Anderson and Welsh produced successive doubles in the fourth that sent over the second counter and Atkins scored the third run in the fifth on his infield hit and Burke's double following Fabrique's out, which advanced the runner. The game was called in the seventh on account of darkness. The score:

SOME THINGS ABOUT SOME PLAYERS AT THE BALL YARD IN THE THURSDAY AFTERNOON STRUGGLE.

VINCENT TYDEMAN. BEN KOEHLER. ED PFEFFER. EARL AINSWORTH.

When the baseball season is over Vincent Tydeman, who has been for several years a professional acrobat, playing ball during the summer months and doing vaudeville turns in the winter, will take Bernard, known generally as Ben Koehler, and double up with him, and if they strike the six towns on the Central league circuit its a cinch they will draw a lot of people.

Tydeman is a quiet and consistent ball player who hits when hits are needed, and covers the outfield very acceptably. Koehler has been playing a class of baseball this season that ought to get him an advance, and it is certain there are lots of worse second basemen in both the American association and International league.

Ed Pfeffer made his first appearance since he was purchased by the Brooklyn club, and was beaten, but this happens now and then to the best of the hurlers. Pfeffer's career is of interest here from the fact that Jack Hendricks took him on the recommendation of George Huff and farmed him a year and then sold him. He afterward went to Denver with Hendricks but illness prevented him from doing his best work and last year he was not up to form. He is going in great shape now and it is believed he will stick.

Earl Ainsworth made his first local appearance in a Fort Wayne uniform. He is expected to strengthen the club in the pitching department and has already given some very creditable performances. While with Youngstown last season he was a hard proposition for the Fort Wayne team.

FEW CHANGES IN RULES FOR 1913

All Are Technical and Will Not Affect Foot Ball Play.

CAMP REVIEWS THEM

New York, Aug. 1.—The intercollegiate football rules, as promulgated by the football rules committee, show changes in the gridiron code for the season of 1913. The majority of the alterations are technical and will have little effect upon the game. The most important change is the rule which permits the kicker to stand at any distance from the line of scrimmage when kicking instead of at least five yards behind the scrimmage line. Under the new regulations it is expected that quick kicking from directly behind the forwards will be a playing feature.

Walter Camp in outlining the work of the rules committee, states:

"One alternation was brought about by the fact that a player could not be returned to the game after he had once been taken out, except at the beginning of a period. It often happened that an unexpected substitution was necessary in the fourth period, and there seemed to be no reason why an exception should not be made in this case, but the rules forbade it, hence they were altered this year to read: 'Players may be returned once at the beginning of any period, or at any time during the fourth or last period.'

"The rule relating to a forward pass or a kick made from behind the goal line, together with the rule relating to dropping back linemen has also been rendered clearer by changes in the wording.

"In the rules regarding the conduct of players after a forward pass or after a kick, insertion of words, 'After the pass has been made,' now makes it clear that players may interfere with one another until the pass is actually made."

"BEANED" RUNNER INSTEAD OF A BATSMAN AND IS CHASED BY MOB.

Rube Evans, a minor league left-hander, last given address New Orleans, has one curious habit—a trait which has aroused much wonder on the part of every manager under whom the southpaw has been toiling. When given an order by his manager or captain, Mr. Evans always stops, cocks his ears and demands a repetition of the directions.

Naturally he is at first taken for a simp, or bonehead, but when further acquaintance with him shows that he is a gentleman of intelligence and high mentality, the field leaders are muchly puzzled. Not long ago, when Charles Frank, the New Orleans boss, heard Evans demand duplication of a very simple order, Frank wanted an explanation, and after the game Evans told his story.

"I always want my orders repeated," quoth Evans, "so that I will never again make such an error as marked my first professional game. It was at McKeesport, and my first manager, named Collins, was responsible. In this initial game I was getting along nicely, and the battle had gone along till the ninth, when the enemy got a runner on third, with one down. Collins ran up to me and hissed impressively, 'I've copped their signal for a squeeze play. There's only one way to break that up. Beam the geezer—bean him and don't miss him! No run can score when a guy is beaned, so go to it and don't fail!'

"I knew no more what squeeze play was than the man in the moon, but my orders rang in my ears as I started winding up. Just as I swung up my arm the fellow on third tore for the plate. 'Aha!' I cried, 'there's the candidate for beaning!' I took careful aim at the oncoming runner and picked him with a fine shot on the back of the cranium. Three seconds later the whole crowd was coming toward me with roars of fury, and I got over the back fence just in time.

"Well, how was I to know that I should have hit the batter and not the runner. Ever since I have insisted on duplicate orders, so that I would know just what to do—and I don't think you can blame me!"

MUSICAL BAIT LURES BASS.

Inventors Also Offer Illuminated Face of Pretty Girl.

Sharon, Pa., Aug. 1.—E. E. Wright and Pratt Hubler, two devoted disciples of Izaak Walton, have invented a musical bait for bass fishing. The new device is described as a wooden minnow, and instead of the usual spinner in front there is carved the face of a pretty girl. In front of the face is a miniature electric light, the power for which is furnished by a dry battery carried in the pocket of the fisherman. There is also a small lamp in front of the hook to throw light on the bait, which hangs on the under side. The entire minnow is painted red, and within the device is a miniature music box concealed within the body of the artificial bait, the playing of which is regulated by the fisherman before he casts his line. The inventors say they adopted the idea because they found while fishing that bass were attracted by the ringing of a cow bell, and that the music box is a great improvement on that idea. They say they have had marked success with it.

Hooray! Blood Free of Impurities

Eczema Gone! Acne, Tetter, Rash, Pimples, Carbuncles, Boils—Banished!

The under layer of skin is a fine network of tiny blood vessels in which the famous blood remedy, S. S. S., works with remarkable activity. This is why S. S. S., the best known blood purifier, has such a positive action in the skin. There is one ingredient in S. S. S. which peculiarly stimulates cellular or glandular activity to select from the blood or from this fine network of blood vessels in the skin, those elements which it requires for regeneration.

Under the influence of S. S. S. this fine network of blood vessels in the skin is constantly taking from the blood the nutrition required for healthy tissue, and the cause of disease is just as constantly becoming removed, scattered and rendered harmless. These facts are more fully explained in a book on skin troubles sent by The Swift Specific Co., 190 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. You will find S. S. S. on sale at all drug stores. Get a bottle to-day and banish all skin afflictions.

KEEN INTEREST IN CONVENTION

Mass Meeting to Nominate Independent Ticket Tonight.

AIKEN WILL PRESIDE

Interest is intense today about the downtown district and in the shops and manufacturing institutions over the outcome of the citizens' non-partisan mass convention, to be held this evening in the assembly room of the court house, when voters of every political faith will assemble for the first time in the history of Fort Wayne, for the purpose of nominating a non-partisan municipal ticket in the coming campaign.

The mass convention will be called to order by Hon. Perry A. Randall, chairman of the non-partisan committee of thirty, and Judge John H. Aiken will be chosen as permanent chairman. The committee of thirty was appointed by three mass meetings of democrats, republicans and progressives. It was told to draw up a platform and recommend candidates for places on a citizens' ticket. In the reports to be submitted this evening, the committee will show that it has followed instructions of the representative members of all three political parties.

After permanent officers have been elected, the platform will be read and placed to a vote. After it is disposed of, the committee on nominations will report its recommendations for the nominations of mayor, judge of the city court and city clerk. Afterwards, recommendations will be made for the nomination of councilmen-at-large.

Charles H. Buck will be recommended for the mayoralty candidate; Charles M. Preble will be recommended as the citizens' candidate for city clerk, and the name of Judge J. Frank Mungovan will be submitted as a choice for the citizens' candidate for re-election as judge of the municipal court. The names of the councilmen-at-large candidates to be recommended will not be made public until this evening.

COME TO STUDY METHODS.

German Athletic Authorities to Visit American Training Camps.

Berlin, Aug. 1.—It is reported that a committee of German athletic authorities has arranged to sail for the United States soon to study the athletic training methods there, with a view to helping Germany win in the Olympic games in Berlin in 1916.

The committee plans to remain for some time in New York and then to tour the western states, visiting all the leading universities. A special investigation will be made of the methods in vogue at the army and navy schools.

LEWIS WILL SUPPORT WIFE.

William Lewis, who was arrested in Detroit and brought back to Fort Wayne by Detective Sergeant Walter Immel to answer a charge of wife desertion, was tried before Judge Mungovan in the city court today and the matter was continued for thirty days to give Lewis a chance to prove the sincerity of his promise to take care of his wife. He has a good position in Detroit and will return there. He has agreed to send his wife a weekly allowance. The case against Lewis was not strong and his disagreement with his wife seemed to be due to bad temper on both sides.

EXPORT TRADE IN AUTOS IS LARGE

About $40,000,000 of the Machines Went Abroad in Past Year.

IMPORTS AT LOW EBB

Washington, Aug. 1.—Automobiles and automobile parts to the value of $40,000,000, were shipped from the United States in the past fiscal year as against $1,000,000 worth in 1903, a decade ago, according to figures by the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce. Of last year's shipments $28,500,000 worth were in finished automobiles. Canada was the largest buyer, having taken 7,200 cars valued at $9,200,000. England bought almost 4,000, valued at $3,000,000, then came British Oceania, South America, British South Africa, Germany, British East Indies, France and Russia in the order named.

Less than $2,000,000 worth of automobiles were imported, at an average price of $2,300, while in 1907 more than $4,000,000 worth were brought in at an average price of $3,400.

While trade between the United States and five of the principal South American countries, Argentina, Brazil, Chile, Peru and Uruguay, still is in favor of the southern republics, this country made a considerable gain during the past fiscal year and reduced by $10,000,000 the wide margin of difference between its imports from and exports to these countries. Imports remained stationary, being valued at $187,000,000 during the year, the same as in 1912. In exports the United States gained, shipping to the five nations $126,000,000 of merchandise this year as against $116,000,000 in 1912.

Thus a net gain of $10,000,000 was created. There were increases in shipments to all the countries named, except Argentina, where there was a slight decrease.

Official dispatches state than an invading force from Colombia under the command of General Rosario Gonzales has been driven back steadily on the frontier of the state of Tachira, where Colonel Romero in command of the state troops has forced the rebels to abandon their positions.

On the other side of Venezuela, revolutionists commanded by a nephew of Castro attacked the city of Macuro on Tuesday and were defeated, it is claimed, by government troops led by General Zayago.

The president announced today that all news of hostilities would be published whether favorable or unfavorable to the government. He says he feels he can safely do this because of his splendid army and also because public opinion is with the government.

Telegraph communication between the capital and the rest of the republic is maintained.

CASTRO HAS LANDED.

Willemstad, Curacao, Aug. 1.—Corroboration of the report of Cipriano Castro's landing at Coro, Venezuela, was received here today from Puerto Cabello.

General Simon Bello, Castro's brother-in-law, with a number of adherents, left here last night in a sloop for Venezuela.

Late today Chairman Flood telegraphed Ambassador Wilson withdrawing a previous request for his appearance before the foreign affairs committee tomorrow on the ground that his appearance was "unnecessary and undesirable under existing circumstances and conditions."

esteem in which he was held on all sides amounted to an intimate affection. Judge Powers was a democrat of the old school in the strictest meaning of the term and he gave much of his time to the affairs of the democratic party, in whose councils he held a high place.

He studied law and was admitted to the Steuben county bar when a young man and built up an extensive practice. In 1888 he was nominated by the democrats for the judgeship of the Steuben-DeKalb-Noble judicial district and made such a diligent and effective campaign that he overcame an adverse majority and was elected. Noble county was dropped from that district by the legislature of 1899 and Judge Powers completed his term as judge of the Steuben and DeKalb courts.

In 1908 Judge Powers was nominated by his party as joint senator for Steuben and DeKalb counties and again demonstrated his success as campaigner. With his favorite horse he drove entirely over the two counties calling on the voters at their homes. It was said that he presented his candidacy personally to practically all the voters in the senatorial district. In the legislative sessions of 1909 and 1911 he took a prominent part and won great respect both for his ability as a law-maker and his high sense of honor. His course was guided entirely by his judgment of what was right, and he did not hesitate to differ from his party colleagues when his conscience dictated such a course. This was notably demonstrated by his opposition to the bill for amending the state constitution, better known as the "Tom Marshall constitution." Judge Powers believed the procedure was contrary to constitutional provisions and throughout he took that position.

While in the legislature his old-fashioned common sense, quaint humor and whimsical speeches won him considerable fame and the liking of all who were associated with him.

Surviving Judge Powers are his widow and three children—Mrs. Clela Luce, Miss Ruth Powers and Clark Powers.

The funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon from his late residence, Rev. John Humphrey officiating.

J. J. BRENNAN TO SUCCEED PALMER

When the committee questioned Mulhall on claims of his lawyers about naming chairmen and committees and pledging friendly congressmen, the lawyers tried to pin him down to direct answers on how he expected to do those things. Mulhall said he was not clear about it now, but thought Attorney Emery was to make the arrangements.

Apparent contradictions in Mulhall's testimony about an alleged offer for his letters by Samuel Gompers came up. Once he swore he offered the letters to the labor leader and once he swore Gompers tried to get them from him. He finally testified that the American Federation of Labor officials never offered him anything for the letters.

and the expense will be placed as a tax lien against the property.

Dr. Crull stated today that if it became necessary to go into the rat-catching business on an extensive scale in Fort Wayne the crusade would be tragic and picturesque. War will be made on rats in a fashion that will make them destroy themselves. There is a rat virus in commercial form that will depopulate a rat colony in no time. A rat is caught and inoculated with the virus and then turned loose. The rodent gets a species of rabies, goes mad and bites his fellow rats, who in turn go mad and bite and so on, ad infinitum. The malady produced by the virus is unfailingly deadly. Its next greatest merit is that all other organic creatures—specially poultry, cats, dogs and human beings—are immune to it. Only rats and mice are susceptible to innoculation, so no harm comes from its use.

The official opening of the war on rats is likely to start a brisk demand on the health department for the offices of the rat-catcher.

ENGINE AND CARS DERAILED

Nickel Plate Tracks Blocked at South Whitley for Several Hours.

TRESPASSER LOSES BOTH LEGS

Joseph Peters Struck by Train While Walking on Pennsylvania Tracks.

Nickel Plate engine 404, which was pulling westbound freight train No. 57 at 7:10 o'clock this morning, left the tracks at the derail at the Vandalia crossing in South Whitley and went into the ditch, taking four cars with her. Engineer J. B. Bright and Fireman Floyd Murry, who were in the cab, jumped and escaped injury and none of the other members of the crew was hurt. The wreck blocked the Nickel Plate for some hours, but did no great amount of damage to the roadbed. The Pennsylvania, at the request of Supt. W. M. Williams, sent its wreck outfit and crew to the scene and gave assistance which enabled the Nickel Plate to speedily clear the tracks without having to detour any of its trains. The Nickel Plate has been remarkably free from wrecks this summer.

SHOPS CLOSED TOMORROW.

Employes Will Be Free to Attend Tournament.

None but emergency work will be performed at the Pennsylvania shops and round house tomorrow. The occasion for the shut down is the annual field day and athletic tournament of the Pennsylvania Employes' Athletic association, which is always the greatest athletic event of the season in Fort Wayne. The list of events and the prizes, which were published by the Sentinel yesterday, are the most attractive ever presented in the city and if the weather is favorable, there will be fully 6,000 spectators on the grounds. The traction company is preparing to handle that many and will start the movement early, the program at the Driving park opens promptly at 12:30 o'clock. Between each event will be a musical number by the Elks' band.

VANDAILA HAS BAD WRECK.

Conductor and Brakeman Hurt and Road Blocked.

The second car from the caboose on a Vandalia work train jumped the tracks at 9:30 o'clock yesterday morning, at Wynkoop, and derailed the following car, upset the caboose and tore up a lot of track. Conductor R. R. Kuhn and Brakeman F. A. Hackett were riding in the caboose and each sustained injuries to their back, Mr. Hackett being severely hurt. The caboose, when it left the rails, bounced around and turned on its side and then rolled down a ten foot embankment, with the two trainmen in it. The tracks were badly damaged and five passenger trains had to be detoured via the Pennsylvania and the Grand Rapids and Indiana.

BOTH LEGS CUT OFF.

Resident of Bucyrus Run Down by Pennsylvania Train.

Joseph Peters is lying in the hospital at Bucyrus, Ohio, with both legs mangled so badly that they will have to be amputated if the patient has prospects of surviving the ordeal. Peters was struck by extra train No. 7718 at a point a short distance west of Walnut street crossing, one of the main streets of the city, at an early hour this morning. He was immediately picked up and taken to the hospital where it is said by the surgeon in charge of the case that he cannot live. Peters was walking on the tracks and failed to heed the warning whistle of the engineer.

ENGINE RAN OVER CHILD.

Little Mary Davenport, three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Davenport, farmers residing near Fountain City, Ind., is under the care of a surgeon at Richmond as a result of a Grand Rapids and Indiana engine and tender knocking her down and passing over her prostrate body. Little Mary slipped away from her mother while the latter was preparing supper and strayed on the tracks and the engineer was unable to stop the engine. The child's injuries are painful, but she will recover.

He is a machinist in the Pennsylvania shops and is now making the second trip to Germany, his native country, since he came to America to live, twenty-six years ago.

The nail was torn from the thumb and the bone was crushed to the first joint, where amputation will be made if it is found necessary.

He visited all of the important points on the Pacific coast and a number of those in the interior, including Salt Lake City and Denver, and can talk interestingly of the trip.

It also contains a lot of very useful information for the northern tourist and the traveler in the territory reached by the G. R. & I. It is a very convenient and valuable adjunct to a traveler's outfit.

No! A remarkable one—for you have spent the smallest sum that will buy a package of good food; and the grocer has sold you the most nutritious food made from flour—as clean and crisp and delicious as it was when it came from the oven.

BACK LOT GAMES SCORED.

Chicago Expert Takes Issue With Old-Fashioned Notion.

Chicago, Aug. 1.—Back lot games are an incentive to bad citizenship instead of being the wholesome exercise some old-fashioned folks have thought them, Sidney A. Teller, director of west park No. 2, asserted in a lecture yesterday at the University of Chicago. He said that unsupervised sport in city spaces is worse than no play at all.

"The first ideal we had concerning the playgrounds was to get space, the second was equipment," said Mr. Teller. "The gang playing in a back lot has not enough space, no equipment and no direction. Such play is a bad thing.

"The gang spirit has the wrong outlet in the back lot. On the playground we have changed the gang into a team and the gang leader into the leader of the squad. To evolve American democracy we must have the playgrounds, and Chicago has more of them than any city in the world. We need more playgrounds."

WATCHING A SUSPECT.

Detectives Keep Eye on Elderly Man as Jewel Robber.

Boston, Mass., Aug. 1. Representatives of a private detective agency have under surveillance here an elderly respectable appearing man whom they suspect of being concerned in the quarter million dollar jewelry robberies at Narragansett Pier.

While they do not believe the man has the jewels actually in his possession, they are of the opinion that he knows where they are secreted and is only waiting a favorable time to recover them and escape on a transatlantic steamer. "He is so carefully surrounded as to foil any attempt he may make to get out of the city," said one of the detectives.

The man, it is said, has served sentences in western penitentiaries. Recently he lived in Providence, but came to Boston shortly after the thefts at Narragansett Pier were committed.

"A Perfect Woman Nobly Planned To Warn, to Comfort and Command"

Nature never intended woman to be delicate, ailing, or a sufferer from "nerves." Women in middle age complain of "hot flashes." Many women suffer needlessly from girlhood to womanhood, and from motherhood to middle life, with backache, or headache, dizziness, faintness, or bearing-down sensations. For a permanent relief from these distressing symptoms nothing is so good as

WILL NOT BE RESET.

Younger Trees to Replace Old Elms on White House Grounds.

Washington, Aug. 1.—The historic old elm trees in the white house grounds, which were blown over in Wednesday's storm will not be reset. Instead younger trees will be planted in their places. This was decided today after a careful inspection of the damage by S. F. Gellen, superintendent of public buildings and grounds and nurserymen. It was found the fallen trees were too old for re-planting.

BOWLIN DIES OF MERCURY POISON

Fort Wayne Man, Accused as Forger, Was Arrested at Toledo.

ONCE POLICE CHIEF

Dispatches from Toledo announce the death of Christopher Bowlin, of Fort Wayne, who swallowed fifteen bichloride of mercury tablets last week after having been arrested for forgery alleged to have been perpetrated at Swanton, O. His wife, who conducts a millinery store at 1202 West Main street, in this city, and a son, Merle, of Jacksonville, Fla., were at his bedside at Robinwood hospital when death came.

But little is known about Bowlin in Fort Wayne. He had resided here only three months, occupying quarters in the rear of the millinery shop. For twelve years he resided at Michigan City where Mr. Bowlin served as guard at the Indiana state prison, and was later elected chief of police of Michigan City. He held this office until J. Frank Hanly became governor, when the entire board resigned for alleged failure to enforce certain laws. Leaving Michigan City Bowlin acted as agent for an insurance company for three years, and until one year ago he was agent for the Founders' company, of Detroit, selling stocks and bonds.

It is said that he floated some $1,500 in forged papers in banks at Michigan City eighteen months ago and when detected agreed to repay the money, carrying out his promise and leaving no financial obligations. During the last year Mr. Bowlin represented a Canadian insurance company. He was arrested at Toledo at the instigation of a Swanton, O., physician, who charged that Bowlin had forged a check on him for $200.

Thomaston, Me., Aug. 1.—Samuel D. Haynes, of Detroit, walked out of the prison gates after serving thirty-four years for the murder of James L. Robbins, a policeman, at Rockland in 1879. At midnight his sister, Mrs. F. H. Rogers, of Detroit, telephoned the prisoner that Governor Haines had pardoned him.

"The battle is won," Haynes told Warden Ham, "but I hate to leave."

Haynes had been in prison since he was 17 years old.

FATHER SHOOTS TO AVENGE GIRL

Fatally Wounds Man of 62 Years as Daughter's Betrayer.

THEN MAKES ESCAPE

Chicago, Aug. 1.—E. J. DuPrey, a Chicago avenue tailor, last night shot and fatally injured a 62-year-old man as the betrayer of his daughter. Then in a desperate house-top fight he escaped the policemen attracted by the five shots.

The aged victim of DuPrey's shots was M. L. Gronimus, a traveling photographer, who lived in the same house with the DuPreys, at 412 West Chicago avenue. He was seated on the doorstep when DuPrey opened fire on him.

Following the shooting DuPrey calmly kissed his wife and daughter good-by, climbed to the roof of his house, barricaded himself and there held the fort with an empty revolver until force of numbers prompted him to successful flight.

The pursuit across the roofs came near resulting fatally for one of the pursuers when Detective Stephen Leddy tried to follow on a plank used by DuPrey. Under Leddy's weight the plank cracked and the detective fell. He was saved by a network of wires, from which he dangled until rescued.

Investigation later proved that Gronimus, by this time in the polyclinic hospital fighting for his life, repeatedly was threatened by both DuPrey and his wife. Mrs. DuPrey was supposed to have openly declared murderous intent at the time Gronimus was exonerated in court. She was taken by the police as an accessory.

"I wanted to shoot him myself," wailed Mrs. DuPrey last night while the police were searching for her fugitive husband. "The hound should have been killed. No twelve men ever would convict my husband."

Gronimus was indicted in July as the DuPrey girl's betrayer but in a trial later before Judge W les the charges were dismissed. It w this action of the court that embitte d the DuPreys and prompted them to take justice in their own hands, it is charged.

Reports from the Polyclinic hospital last night were that Gronimus would die.

COWED BY A COW.

Pittsburg, July 24.—They fight flames, risk life and limb, meet desperate criminals and battle, but when it comes to dealing with a scared cow, both firemen and policemen take to their heels.

"Bossy," the cow who made her pasture along Nine-mile road, became lonesome and wandered into the city. Here she was mystified and annoyed. When Patrick Fitzgerald, police sergeant, tried to sneak down from a hose carriage and get into the station house, "Bossy" started after him. Firemen and policemen saw the chase and ran to aid Fitzgerald, but "Bossy" turned on ...em and then they fled.

Of all the firemen and policemen, none had been reared on a farm, and they were unable to tell the difference between a scared cow and a mad one. "Bossy" ruled until her owner, David Jacobson, appeared and took her home.

The Brotherhood of American Yeomen, in session Thursday night, initiated the following candidates: Charles Scott, Blanche Scott, Henry Hollands and Floyd Lambert. The organization will give a picnic August 9 at Swinney park. The committee in charge is composed of J. E. Folts, Carry Lyman, Emma Thompson, Emma Parker and Otto Stahl

MRS. GREEN DIES VERY SUDDENLY

Passes Away Three Hours After Having Been Removed to Hospital.

THE OTHER DEATHS

Three hours after Mrs. Monroe Green became violently ill at her home, 1323 Wall street at 10:45 o'clock Thursday evening, she died at the Lutheran hospital, where she had been removed for treatment. She was forty-five years of age and had been a resident of Fort Wayne for several years.

Owing to the nature of her illness, the physicians attending her decided to conduct a post mortem examination. This was done at 12:30 o'clock today and it was found that among other things, Mrs. Green suffered an attack of pulmonary anaemia, and was also afflicted with gallstones, dilation of the stomach and liver and kidney trouble. The examination was conducted by Dr. R. B. McKeeman and Dr. J. C. Wallace. Dr. McKeeman said that he was called to the Green home about 10:30 o'clock last evening to attend the woman, who at that time appeared to be suffering from convulsions. She was rushed to the hospital and everything possible done to save her life, but all efforts were fruitless.

The family is well known and the husband is a machinist employed at the Fort Wayne Electric works.

A report that while suffering from the effects of her illness Mrs. Harris had attempted to harm one of her children is denied by Mr. Harris.

FREE LUNCHES UNDER BAN.

New Connecticut Law Against Them Now in Effect.

New Haven, Conn., Aug. 1.—The law abolishing the free lunch in saloons, passed by the last Connecticut legislature, became effective today. The State Liquor Dealers' association proposes to test the constitutionality of the law, but in the meantime has asked its members to abide by it. Another law which went into effect today makes five days' advance notice necessary to the issuing of a marriage license. It is provided, however, that any magistrate or minister called on to perform a ceremony may, if he deems it public policy, or the physical condition of either party warrants an immediate marriage, order the town clerk to issue a license without delay.

In passing sentence on Tolman, who is 61 years old, the judge said that if he should conduct a similar business in any part of the United States or Canada the court would consider the probation broken and would cause his arrest and sentence.

AMOS R. WALTER IS ONLY SURVIVOR

Fortieth Anniversary of the Delivery of Mail in Fort Wayne.

W. P. COOPER HELPED

This is the fortieth anniversary of the inauguration of mail delivery in Fort Wayne by carrier, and Amos R. Walter, the only surviving member of the first Fort Wayne carrier staff of five men, is celebrating the anniversary in a quiet manner at his home, 912 West Creighton avenue. Another Fort Wayne man to whom the anniversary holds a great deal of significance is William P. Cooper, the well known insurance man, who as editor of the Fort Wayne Gazette forty years ago assisted Postmaster J. J. Kamm in mapping out the routes for the first carrier system in Fort Wayne.

Forty years ago today word was received by the late J. J. Kamm, then postmaster, that the government had decided to open a carrier delivery system in Fort Wayne, and forty years ago tomorrow this system was in operating order. Mr. Cooper says they lost no time in getting busy in Fort Wayne then.

Besides Amos R. Walter, present Deputy United States marshal, the other original mail carriers of this city were Robert Jacobs, a brother of John Jacobs; August Feustel, Henry S. Mentsch and Adam Link.

Charles Ronsh, one of the well known letter carriers at the local postoffice, is today celebrating the twenty-sixth anniversary of his work with the Fort Wayne postoffice. He is receiving the congratulations of his many friends.

SEEKS SUSPECTS IN GARY.

Turk and Negro Wanted in Connection With Holstein Slaying.

Chicago, Aug. 1.—Paul Pakin, a Turk, and Leo White, a negro, for whom the police are searching in connection with the murder of Benny Holstein, 14, in Morgan park, were companions, and fled from Morgan park a day before the body of the boy was discovered, according to information given to the police by Mrs. John Johnson today. The woman said that White and Pakin came to her house Wednesday and inquired for her husband. White said that he and Pakin were going to work with a paving gang in Gary, Ind., and they wanted Johnson to go with them.

"White and Pakin were friends," said Mrs. Johnson to the police. "They appeared very excited." Detectives were sent to Gary in search of the men.

CANTON IS PANIC-STRICKEN.

Force of Loyal Troops is Marching on Rebellious City.

Hongkong, China, Aug. 1.—Gen. Lung Chi Kuang, with a force of loyal troops from the province of Kwang-Si, is marching on Canton after taking possession of Shinking on the West river. An engagement is imminent between Gen. Lung's army and troops dispatched from Canton by the governor-general of Kwang-Tung.

Troops have been hurried to oppose the advance of General Lung's forces, but the city of Canton is panic-stricken. There is an immense exodus from the city and all business has been suspended.

CLOUGH TO SUCCEED ELLIOTT.

New York, Aug. 1. William B. Clough, first vice president and a member of the executive committee, is to be the successor of Howard Elliott as head of the Northern Pacific railway, according to authoritative announcement in Wall street today.

TIES UP CONSTRUCTION WORK.

Strike of Teamsters at Cincinnati Hampers Other Lines.

Cincinnati, O., Aug. 1.—Construction work in this city has been crippled to a great extent by the strike of the teamsters which has been on for the last week. Work on five large buildings in process of construction were suspended today owing to builders' inability to obtain material. As yet little trouble has been experienced but the inconvenience to business is beginning to be felt. It is estimated by the team owners that if the strike continues another week more than 10,000 workers will be thrown out of employment.

JOSEPH KATS IS AFTER NEW NAME

Wants Circuit Court to Make Him Schlossberg by Decree.

NEWS OF THE COURTS

Joseph Kats does not like his name and the reason may perhaps be obvious. He has petitioned the circuit court to change his name to Joseph Schlossberg, and when Judge Eggeman returns to the bench Kats will pass from the stage and Schlossberg will take his place, unless some good and sufficient reason to the contrary should meanwhile appear.

Mere Man Complains of Housework.

John Moora draws the line on being his own housewife and asks the superior court to divorce him from Mary Moora, whom the plaintiff says he married a year ago and has just left. He complains that she has always neglected her household duties, that he has often had to do is own cooking and that his spouse is absent from home at all times of the day and night with her whereabouts unknown to him.

Seeks Men of Low Chastity.

John Baals has asked the superior court to sever the legal tie that binds him to Jennie A. Baals after seven years of troubled existence with her. According to the complaint she swears at him, calls him bad names and has threatened to leave him and break up his home. More serious is the accusation that Mrs. Baals "associates with men with bad repute for chastity," and visits wineerooms with them.

Notes of the Courts.

Alice G. Stout alleges in her divorce complaint to the superior court that John L. Stout, to whom she was wed in 1899, abandoned her two years ago and she has had no provision for support from him during that period.

In the superior court Acting Judge Ryan rendered judgment for $250.35 to the defendant in the case of William Ehle vs. Heinrich Hemsoth. He gave judgment for $471.55 to Sarah Ehle against the same defendant.

The case of Erickson vs. Stenger, for possession of property and for a small amount in damages is on trial before Judge W. C. Ryan in the superior court today.

The case of the Woodburn Hardware company vs. Charles E. Burrier on account, has been dismissed from the superior court and the costs paid.

Judge Ryan, in the superior court, has referred the petition for the Conrad ditch in Cedar Creek township to the drainage commission and appointed Joseph Tonkel the third man to act with the regular commissioners, County Surveyor Ralph Guenther and J. W. Rourick.

NO TRACE OF FUGITIVES.

Although Sheriff A. C. Gladieux has sent inquiries in every direction he has so far received no trace of Ada Richards, Susie Taylor and Retta Burley, the three colored women who broke jail early yesterday and escaped from the city.

GRACE FOR DOG TAX IS ENDED.

The last day in which to pay dog tax without penalty passed with the closing of July, and 133 delinquents in Wayne township will be proceeded against for collection. Hilgeman for legal action, and delinquents will have to prove they have no dogs or pay the tax and penalty.

PILING IS REMOVED.

The county commissioners today announced that the piling which sustained the false work of the Tennessee avenue bridge across the St. Joe river in Lakeside, has been removed.

TAKES NEW PRECAUTIONS.

Calumet, Mich., Aug. 1. Strengthening of the military positions as a sequel to revelations of alleged plots to dynamite shaft houses and other property marked the early hours of the copper miners' strike today.

Reports that explosives had disappeared from the Hancock mine powder house and the discovery of dynamite on a prisoner taken at Red Jacket, led General Abbey to issue orders designed to increase the effective strength of the brigade of state troops controlling the district. The Third infantry hospital corps was pressed into service, its members being armed with revolvers and night sticks made from wagon spokes.

TRAGIC DEATHS AT MILWAUKEE.

Milwaukee, Wis., Aug. 1. Three bodies were taken from Lake Michigan and one from Milwaukee river early today, making a total of ten deaths here within the last 48 hours. Beside four drownings there were four suicides and two deaths in railroad accidents.

MAYOR'S HOME BURNED.

Two Negroes Die in Effort to Rescue Another from Sewer.

Wilmington, Del., Aug. 1.—Two negroes lost their lives here today in a vain effort to rescue another. William Boulden, a city employe, detailed to clean a sewer, fell unconscious from sewer gas when he descended. Jacob Monk immediately went down and also fell helpless. Bert Trust, a driver, who was passing at the time, volunteered to go after the other two, and was overcome as soon as he reached the bottom of the sewer. A derrick was rigged and when the three men were hauled out they were dead.

CITY HALL NEWS

WILL GO TO WINNIPEG.

Park Board Secretary Steiss to Attend Municipal League Convention.

Charles J. Steiss, secretary of the city park board, will leave Tuesday for Winnipeg, Man., to attend the annual convention of the League of American Municipalities, of which he is treasurer. The convention will be held the 7th, 8th and 9th inst. As treasurer of the organization Mr. Steiss today received about $800 to deposit to the account of dues. Mr. Steiss may make some effort to have the next convention of the league held in Fort Wayne. He will stop in Chicago and Minneapolis and St. Paul while gone to inspect the park systems of those cities and will devote much of his time while in Winnipeg to that purpose. No other delegate to the convention will go from this city, which is a member of the league.

SHOWS CITY IS FORTUNATE.

Board of Health Will Not Consume the Entire Appropriation.

Dr. Eric A. Crull, secretary of the board of health, today completed and placed with Comptroller W. S. Cutshall the annual budget of the health department. It is practically the same as last year's, when $1,800 was apportioned to the department. The last appropriation will not be entirely exhausted if the year continues to the close under the same good auspices that have attended the first seven months. Notwithstanding that the March floods threatened the city with plague, luck did not desert and no malady of epidemic tendencies followed the disaster. Dr. Crull believes the department should have a trifle of latitude in the matter of funds, because emergencies in the department are of a sort that admit of no delay. He believes, too, that the expenses of the department are lower than can be found in a city of Fort Wayne's class where the health laws are efficiently administered as they are here.

The quality of linen is superb and the very latest styles predominate. They were worth up to $7.50. They are going for Government Experts show that only about 2% of all the personal injury accidents are caused by unforeseen conditions, such as landslides, cyclones, forest fires, etc. This means that human hurt comes chiefly from human neglect,

"WABASH VALLEY LINES"

SUIT DON'T STOP HER FRIENDSHIP

Woman Tells Why She Lunches With Husband During the Trial

FOR A SEPARATION

Chicago, Aug. 1.—Amicable divorce is the best kind.

"Because couples are not happily married is no reason for enmity.

"Better smile than scowl, even at your own husband.

"Every couple can't be happy, but why worry about it?

"Eat a good luncheon and forget your troubles."

These are some of the reasons given by Mrs. Eleanora White Trenholm for appearing in the courtroom, and at luncheon with her husband, Thomas Trenholm, a prominent member of the board of trade, and who, in a cross complaint to a suit filed by her husband, asked for a divorce in Judge McKinley's court.

"Why, of course, Mr. Trenholm and I are good friends. The fact that we are not happily married nor properly mated shouldn't make us bitter enemies," said the young wife in explaining why she took lunch with her husband during the trial.

"Mr. Trenholm is twenty-five years my senior and I think perhaps that is one reason we have found we can't live together. But life is too short to take such things seriously.

"We are good friends, always have been good friends, and will continue to be good friends. It isn't good form, even in legal matters, to declare one's enmity and to glare at one's adversary.

"When we agreed to separate, Mr. Trenholm promised to sue me for a divorce, on the grounds of desertion. I agreed to this. He filed the suit, but never pressed it. I waited six years for freedom, but could not get him into court. In our agreement I promised not to resist his complaint nor to file another charge.

"I grew tired of being neither maid, wife nor widow. The only way I could get him into court was to file a cross bill. That is all there is to it. I want freedom."

A series of letters written by Mrs. Trenholm to some of her men friends, after her marriage to Trenholm in 1906, were introduced.

COSTLY TREATMENT.

"I was troubled with constipation and indigestion and spent hundreds of dollars for medicine and treatment," writes C. H. Hines, of Whitlow, Ark. "I went to a St. Louis hospital, also to a hospital in New Orleans, but no cure was effected. On returning home I began taking Chamberlain's Tablets, and worked right along. I used them for some time and am now all right." Sold by all dealers.—Adv.

USE PLASTER ON YOUR LIPS.

Paste it All Over While Sleeping and Preserve Your Voice.

Berkeley, Cal., Aug. 1. Prof. Robert Irving Fulton, dean of the College of Oratory at the Ohio Wesleyan university, who is lecturing on public speaking at the summer session of the University of California, advocates the use of common sticking plaster over the mouth during sleep to keep the voice in good condition. To his class he said: "Get a yard of sticking plaster a whole yard, no less, and cut it in pieces half an inch wide and an inch long. Then put one of the pieces over the lips every night, keeping them in their proper shape, and you will sleep like a baby. In the morning wash it off. This is the secret of keeping the voice in condition, and it is the most economical way in the world, for it costs only fifty cents a year."

GOOD REASON FOR HIS ENTHUSIASM

When a man has suffered for several days with colic, diarrhoea or other form of bowel complaint and is then cured sound and well by one or two doses of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, as is often the case, it is but natural that he should be enthusiastic in his praise of the remedy, and especially is this the case of a severe attack when life is threatened. Try it when in need of such a remedy. It never fails. Sold by all dealers.—Adv.

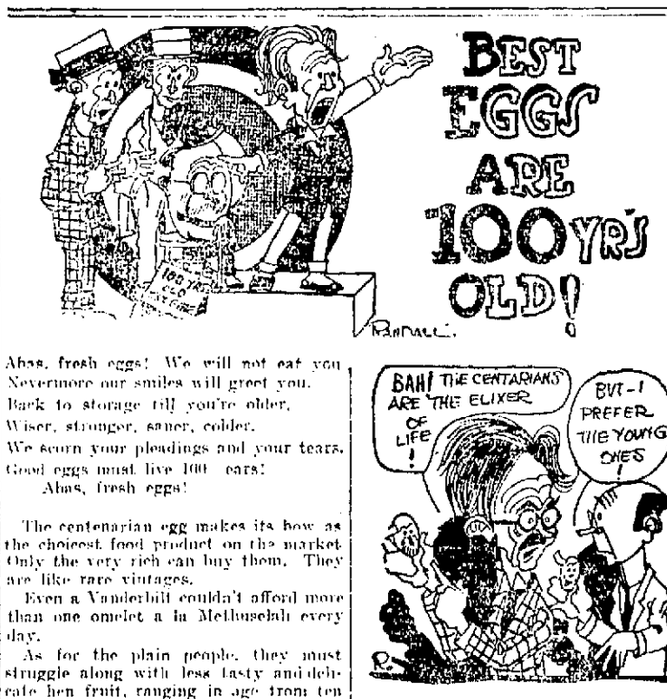
WM. HAHN & CO.



Alas, fresh eggs! We will not eat you
Nevermore our smiles will greet you.
Back to storage till you're older,
Wiser, stronger, saner, colder.
We scorn your pleadings and your tears.
Good eggs must live 100 years!
Alas, fresh eggs!

The centenarian egg makes its bow as the choicest food product on the market. Only the very rich can buy them. They are like rare vintages.

Even a Vanderbilt couldn't afford more than one omelet a la Methuselah every day.

As for the plain people, they must struggle along with less tasty and delicate hen fruit, ranging in age from ten to twenty-five years. However it is reasonable to splurge on a pair of fifty year-old eggs when entertaining one's fiancee or an out-of-town customer.

All this topsyturvying of the egg situation has come about through the testimony of scientists in a recent test case against frozen eggs at Trenton, N. J. Prof. Sedgwick, a laboratory expert, testified that the whole system of judging eggs by their age was wrong, as well as being unjust to the old and infirm members of the oval tribe. He declared that a fresh eggs is not so good as one which has been kept a long time under congenial and refined surroundings. A fresh egg, the professor indicated, is fresh in every sense of the word—mentally, socially and otherwise.

An egg which has reached its majority, on the other hand, has dignity and poise and is chuck full of nutrition and well digested facts. He added that the older an egg got the better it got and, unlike human beings, it didn't have to exercise fiercely to get strong.

The prosecution in the New Jersey case charged that the confiscated frozen eggs had been loafing around Trenton since the night the Hessians were trapped by G. Washington in a moving picture show.

And then came the array of scientific talent to rally about the defense and shout that an old egg is the elixir of life and the builder of bone and sinew, while a fresh egg is a snare and a hash counter delusion.

As proof it was pointed out that when Li Hung Chang toured the United States he brought along a case of 100-year-old eggs and that one of them was opened by Li's head executioner for every meal. They were the choicest of all Chinese delicacies. The eggs stood the long trip very, very well, despite their advanced years, although they were entirely too set in their ways to take up American customs.

If the price on prehistoric cackle gourds goes up, troupes of barnstormers will gather in the kale all over the country. That is, unless the volunteer critics of "East Lynne" don't get wise to themselves and realize that they are throwing good money away at a bunch of hams by twirling old eggs at them.

Gee, but we'd like to own the egg that Commodore Chris Columbus cracked to show that the world was globular.

Doctors recommend our fruit sherbets to their patients for its nourishing and refreshing quality. There is nothing more delicious during the hot weather than our lemon or pineapple sherbet made from the fruit, 35c quart. Packed in ice; delivered to your door.

WALL STREET HAS MADE IT CERTAIN

Early Currency Legislation Now Assured Beyond a Doubt.

WILSON STANDS PAT

BY GILSON GARDNER.

Washington, Aug. 1.—Yes, there will be currency legislation at this session of congress. President Wilson is standing pat. He is standing all the patter on account of this new development in Wall street. "Wash sales" of 2 per cent. government bonds to establish new low records and depress the market rather confirm him in the belief that his currency legislation would be beneficial. These facts confirm other people in the opinion that the proposed act is in the interest of business and the people more than it is for the special benefit of bankers as a class. The attitude of reactionaries on the house committee, like Bulkeley, of Ohio, and Korbly, of Indiana, further confirms this belief. Gallinger's protest in the senate is an endorsement likewise of the Wilson bill. Altogether it seems wise that everybody should stay through the hot weather and pleasant fall and consider currency legislation. Anyhow, the tariff is nearly over.

The administration's Mexican policy is perfectly easy to understand, and when it is understood the action of the president in withdrawing Henry Lane Wilson is seen to be one of its necessary incidents. President Wilson announced during his first week in the white house that this administration would not participate in the intrigues of Mexico or other revolutionary neighbors. It is safe to say that Ambassador Wilson will not return to Mexico, and that if his resignation is not now filed and accepted it will be as soon as the state department is through investigating him.

The policy of this administration toward Mexico is one of non-interference in affairs which do not concern us. Our official sympathies will be with a constitutional form of government and the people who are fighting for their liberties. This has been the traditional policy of the United States since the republic was founded. There is nothing in the alleged Monroe doctrine which is contrary to this program. The Monroe doctrine does not mean American responsibility for foreign claims on this continent. It does not mean underwriting speculative securities of foreign investors. It does not mean forbidding foreigners to protect their citizens.

The Monroe doctrine has been more misrepresented than any official policy ever declared. The Monroe doctrine was the announcement by President Monroe that "the American continents by the free and independent condition which they have assumed and maintained are henceforth not to be considered as subjects for future colonization by European powers.

We should consider any attempt on their part to extend their system to any portion of this hemisphere as dangerous to our peace and safety. With the existing colonies or dependencies of any European power we have not interfered and shall not interfere, but with the governments who have declared their independence and maintained it, and whose independence we have on great consideration and on just principles acknowledged, we could not view any interposition for the purpose of oppressing them or controlling in any other manner their destiny by any European power in any other light than as the manifestation of an unfriendly disposition toward the United States."

These are the words uttered by President James Monroe in 1823 and announced to the world through his secretary of state, John Quincy Adams. The principal action taken by the United States under this policy was our protest against the action of Napoleon, who attempted to set up a miniature empire under the dominion of Maximilian in Mexico, while the United States was busy fighting its civil war. France recognized the justice of our demand and Maximilian was overthrown.

One of the humors of the sultry season is to be seen in the fact that Senator Penrose has been compelled by the new constitutional amendment to seek re-election by popular vote of the people of Pennsylvania. He has already started on a speaking and baby-kissing campaign in that state. Penrose has become "progressive" and inclines favorably toward woman suffrage.

An Everyday View of the Next Sunday School Lesson

Lesson text, Psalms 105:23-36. Golden text, Matthew 23:12. "Whosoever shall exalt himself shall be humbled; and whosoever shall humble himself shall be exalted."

This lesson is a record of the miraculous. Miracles and reason are close friends. One does not contradict the other. Concede God and the rest follows. The constancy of what we call law forms no insuperable barrier. Law as we see it is the will of God manifesting itself in nature. The one law with which we are most familiar is that of gravitation, but in its final analysis gravitation is no better understood than the ten plagues of Egypt. The more one knows of nature the more inclined he should be to accept the supernatural. God has had recourse to the miraculous at the rarest intervals, and then only in exigencies beyond the natural order.

Pharaoh Is Given His Choice, But Refuses to Listen.

Pharaoh was first entreated to let the people go. But he insulted God and sent the people back to their tasks with redoubled vigor. His action was an attack not so much upon the Israelites as upon God himself. For centuries God's promise that their bondage should not be forever had lain upon the heart of Israel. The time of their deliverance had come, and the Almighty must be true to himself. Hence the need that demanded the interposition of the supernatural. God always approaches the sinner in his more merciful aspect. He warns the prodigal that his course will lead to ruin. Ten thousand have gone that way before and all with the same result. But the young man refuses to listen. Pharaoh is also given his chance, and with the same result. There is nothing to awaken the slightest fear. The road is pleasant and flowers bloom on either side. But the plagues await him. This is the experience of daily life.

The plagues were an attack upon the theology of the country quite as much as upon the king himself. The Egyptians worshiped the Nile. Where it came from no one knew. To them it was the giver and sustainer of life. There is an old Egyptian hymn which the natives sang to the river, "Hail thou, O Nile, that showest thyself in this land, coming in peace and giving life to Egypt. O concealed One, thou leadest the night onward to the day, a leading that rejoices the heart, giving life to every home." This was the god first to be smitten by the rod of Moses.

Gods of Pharaoh Smitten in the First Plague.

It is a significant fact that the first plague was visited upon the river. "Get thee unto Pharaoh in the morning; lo! he goeth out into the water," was the command of God. It is more than possible that the king was on his way to worship, or possibly to attend some festivity of a god. Such occasions were not unusual on the banks of the Nile. But whatever the nature of his mission, Pharaoh would be surrounded by a vast retinue of attendants when Moses and Aaron came upon the scene. Their appearance must have been highly dramatic. Both were over 80 years of age, and yet in the fullness of their strength. Pharaoh knew them. He had met them before in an interview not likely to be forgotten. The two stood side by side, one with the magic rod in his hand. And Moses, fastening his eyes upon the king, thus addressed him: "Jehovah, the God of the Hebrews, hath sent me unto thee, saying, Let my people go, that they may serve me in the wilderness; and behold, hitherto thou has not hearkened. Thus saith Jehovah: Behold, I will smite with the rod that is in my hand upon the waters which are in the river, and they shall be turned to blood. And the fish that are in the river shall die." Then Aaron, taking the rod from the hand of Moses, smote the water in the sight of Pharaoh and in the sight of the servants, and the waters were turned into blood and the fish died, according to the word of God.

The effect upon Pharaoh must have been startling. His gods were smitten by a single blow. Not only were the waters sacred but many of the fish were ranked among the divinities. This should have been sufficient to touch his heart, but he only turned and went into his house, even more determined not to let the people go.

Plague after plague followed in rapid succession. The magicians were appealed to and at first seem to have been successful. But imitations are self-destructive. The magicians could imitate, and that was all. They could make water look like blood, but they could not turn blood back to water. Such is a false gospel. It is easier to disturb than it is to quiet.

The third plague came without warning, thus giving the magicians no time for preparation. The result was that they withdrew from the rivalry and confessed that this was the "finger of God." The plague upon the cattle, like that upon the river, was an attack on the god system of the country. The god of Egypt was Apis, or the sacred bull, supposed to be the incarnation of Osiris, worshiped as the god of the underworld in Egyptian mythology. His temple was at Memphis. Once a year when the Nile began to rise a golden cup was thrown into the river and a grand festival was held in his honor. It is quite possible that a sacred bull was among the beasts touched by the plague.

Pharaoh Fears Darkness, But Is Not Drawn Toward Light.

As Moses approached the end of the trial a horror of great darkness settled down upon the country, but the "children of Israel had light in their dwellings." This plague also came without warning. It differs from the others in that it seems to have been more supernatural. Objects from nature, such as the river, frogs and locusts, appear to have formed no part of it. Pharaoh was partially persuaded. He was willing that the people should go, but their flocks must be left behind. To this Moses objected. The cattle were essential for sacrifice. Like a true servant of God, wherever he went he took his religion with him. But the king was unchanged. Fear is never conversion. He feared the darkness, but was not drawn toward the light where the Israelites were. Again Pharaoh's heart was hardened, not of God but of himself. Affliction either makes or unmakes men. It leaves one better or worse. Pharaoh it left worse, as it has left many a man since.

REMARKABLE CURE OF DYSENTERY

"I was attacked with dysentery about July 15th, and used the doctor's medicine and other remedies with no relief, only getting worse all the time. I was unable to do anything and my weight dropped from 145 to 125 pounds. I suffered for about two months when I was advised to use Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I used two bottles of it and it gave me permanent relief," writes B. W. Hill of Snow Hill, N. C. For sale by all dealers.—Adv.

CORN PRICE AGAIN GOES UP.

Excitement in Chicago Market Sends Cereal Up on Reported Losses.

Chicago, Aug. 1.—Excitement in the corn market took prices up more than 2 cents a bushel today. This made the advance equal to about 7 cents in the last week. Reports were at hand indicating the corn crop as a whole had suffered a loss of 200,000,000 to 250,000,000 bushels in the last month owing to damage from lack of the normal amount of moisture. The greater part of the injury has been in Kansas, Oklahoma, Missouri and Nebraska but the outlook for a greatly enlarged area of damage was today regarded by many traders as dangerously threatening.

Davenport, Iowa, sent word that all drought records for July had been broken. Less than two-tenths of an inch of rain fell during the month, and there were no signs of any rain. Peoria, Ill., dispatches today said corn in the fields near there was fired two to three feet up and was not likely to produce any grain, the color of the tassels having become unnatural.

GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

Chicago Market.

Chicago, Aug. 1.—Corn bounded higher today than at any time since the alarm over dry weather began. Offerings were limited. September started at 66⅝c to 67⅛c and rose to 67¾c.

The close was steady with September 2⅛@2¼c higher at 65¼c.

Wheat showed strength chiefly because of bullish activity and the higher corn market. September, which started at 86⅝c to 86½c, climbed to 86¾c.

The close was 1@1⅛c net higher for September at 87¼c.

Further unfavorable threshing reports helped turn oats upward. September opened at 41c and ascended to 41¾c.

Advancing prices or corn and hogs put firmness into provisions. First sales with September were: Pork, $20.90; lard, $11.60; ribs, $11.52½ to $11.55@11.57½.

THE DAY ON WALL STREET.

New York, Aug. 1.—The stock market was moderately steady at the opening today, with business in small volume. Most of the active issues were fractionally higher with half point points in Steel and Amalgamated. National Railways of Mexico second preferred declined 1%.

The market became extremely apathetic soon after the opening, with no noteworthy changes save a point gain in Baltimore & Ohio and half point advances in Can and Illinois Central, these being offset by some pressure upon Union Pacific and Northwestern.

The unexpected announcement by the treasury department of its purpose to make large deposits of government funds at western and southern centers in order to expedite the movemnt of crops imparted some strength to today's dull market, even though it failed to excite more than passing interest in banking circles. Bonds were irregular.

The market closed heavy. Pressure relaxed in the last hour and the list showed more steadiness.

Slight recoveries seemed to furnish a new level for short sales, however, and the market again dropped in the final dealings.

called insurgent members of the house banking committee, today introduced his resolution directing investigation of Secretary McAdoo's charge that New York bankers were depressing the price of the government 2 per cent bonds to influence action on the currency bill.

Another resolution directing inquiry into McAdoo's charges was introduced by Representative Mondell, of Wyoming. He called upon the secretary for facts to bear out his allegations.

Diggs-Caminetti Debate Ends.

The Diggs-Caminetti debate in the house wound up today with Republican Leader Mann delivering a hot attack upon the administration and Attorney General McReynolds for postponement of the prosecutions, and Chairman Clayton, of the judiciary committee, replying with a spirited defense. Galleries were crowded but Mr. Mann minced no words.

"The republicans have fallen down utterly in their attempt to make a scandal out of this case," Clayton said. "They have not been sustained by the facts so the gentleman from Illinois adopts the tactics of a police court lawyer and weeps his way out of court."

The house tabled Representative Kahn's resolution calling for information which Attorney General McReynolds already had supplied.

tary Bryan, made it clear that the administration was determined not to recognize the Huerta government and that Secretary Bryan contemplates an attempt to get a valid, binding election. That it might proceed immediately and intelligently if the necessity for legislative action should arise the committee desired to inform itself accurately as to the conditions in Mexico.

Secretary Bryan today asked the house to appropriate $100,000 to care for destitute Americans in Mexico who may find it necessary for their safety and well-being to leave and who are unable to pay for their own transportation.

a noble Austrian house. The prince was married last week to a daughter of a retired millionaire, with a quiet ceremony, plans for a brilliant church wedding having been suddenly changed.

An attorney who was first approached by Mrs. Melcher and then retained by the prince, said he had suggested to Mr. Freede, the prince's father-in-law, a payment of five or ten thousand dollars in settlement of the woman's claims, but Mrs. Melcher through her lawyer declared she must have not less than $50,000.

In the meantime the prince and his bride are on their wedding trip, but where, no one outside the Freede family knows. Mr. Freede vouch-safed only the information that the prince and the princess were out of the country.

Inspector Connell declined to comment on the case, saying merely that it had been brought to him for investigation under the federal law prohibiting the importation of women.

Mr. Freede asserted the demands of the woman had not caused the change in the announced wedding plans of the prince and his daughter.

The rain was accompanied by wind and lightning and much damage was done to property. There was an appreciable reduction of the heat. Many prostrations had been reported before the rain came.

SUMMARY OF WEATHER CONDITIONS

The cool weather which is spreading slowly southeastward from the northwest has broken the heat wave as far southeastward as Kansas, Iowa, northern Illinois and northern Indiana, but hot weather still continues from the Ohio valley eastward and southward. There were no temperatures above 90 degrees west of the Mississippi yesterday except in the southwest and along the north Pacific coast districts, unusually high temperatures being reported from the latter district, with a maximum of 100 degrees at Roseburg, Oregon. Some showers are reported from Michigan, Indiana and Ohio and portions of the southern states. West of the Mississippi fair weather has been general.

An extensive area of high pressure which now covers the states west of the Mississippi will spread slowly eastward and give fair weather in this section for the next two or three days. No excessively hot weather is indicated for this section for the next few days.

TO LEAD FIGHT ON TAMMANY HALL

New York Fusionists Name Mitchell as Candidate for Mayor.

WHITE HOUSE SMILES

New York, Aug. 1.—John Purroy Mitchell, collector of the port of New York, was nominated for the office of mayor of New York today on a fusion ticket. Mr. Mitchell, a democrat, 33 years old, was chosen by a committee of republicans, progressives and independents organized to fight Tammany Hall at the coming city election.

District Attorney Charles S. Whitman, a republican, defeated by Mitchell for the mayoralty nomination by a narrow margin, was renominated for the office of county prosecutor. The rest of the city ticket chosen by the fusionists was:

Comptroller—William A. Prendergast.

President of board of aldermen, George McAneny; borough presidents—Manhattan, Marcus M. Marks; Brooklyn, Lewis H. Pounds; Bronx, Marcus C. Miller; Queens, Robert W. Highie; Richmond, George Cromwell.

Since the fusionists have no legal standing as a party, these candidates will be officially placed in nomination by petition.

Republicans, progressives and independents, as represented by a fusion committee of 107 members, agreed early today upon the nomination of Mitchell. The regular democratic candidate, or that to be backed by Tammany Hall, has not yet been named, but Mayor Gaynor is understood to be a candidate for nomination for another term.

An All-Night Struggle.

The agreement of the fusionists to put Mitchell forward as their candidate was not reached until after an all-night struggle during which the committee took nine ballots, on the first of which Mitchell led by a slight margin over District Attorney Charles S. Witman and Borough President McAneny, of Manhattan. These were the only three candidates considered, and the contest among their adherents was stubborn. Mitchell led slightly on every ballot and on the final vote won the necessary majority among the 88 members then present to nominate. He received 45 votes; Whitman received 43, the McAneny forces breaking up and dividing their strength between the two leaders. The nomination of Mitchell afterward was made unanimous. The ticket named with Mitchell carries the renomination of Whitman as district attorney and W. A. Prendergast as comptroller and the nomination of McAneny as president of the board of aldermen. Mitchell, elected as president of the board of aldermen on the democratic ticket in the last election, was recently appointed collector of customs at this port. The preference which the president then showed toward him was used by his admirers as evidence that the president would favor him in an anti-Tammany fight. The platform adopted by the fusion committee has municipal economy as its cornerstone. Other issues are "home rule" with revision of the city charter, police reform, and a social program which includes public health, reduction of food costs by the establishment of terminal markets in each borough; establishment of a municipal department of recreation, limitation of the heights of new buildings and the extension of trade and vocational training in the public schools.

WHITE HOUSE PLEASED.

Washington, Aug. 1.—When M. Mitchell was recently appointed by President Wilson collector of the port of New York, the understanding was that if he desired to enter the mayoralty contest he could do so without resigning until he felt ready to do so. While the white house made no comment on Mr. Mitchell's selection it was apparent that officials were well pleased.

President Foster, of German-American, Issues Statement.

In a letter just issued to stockholders, President Samuel M. Foster, of the German-American National bank, says that the directors in regular session declared the regular quarterly dividend of 2 per cent. and the usual amount charged for furniture and fixtures. Three thousand dollars was added to the surplus, making a total of $105,000, something more than 40 per cent. on the capital, earned in the eight years the bank has been in business.

Mr. Foster declared the bank's policy of never carrying a concealed loss and in view of this the board has decided to use the balance of the six months' earnings in wiping out the premium on its United States bonds. The German-American is one of the first banks in the state to take this action.
